Virtual lab at ANDC (V-Lab@ANDC)

Patron: Prof. Ravi Toteja (Officiating Principal)
Coordinator: Prof. Seema Makhija (Zoology), Dr SumitSahni and Dr Vineet K Singh (Botany)
Conveners: Dr Sanjeeta Rani (Physics), Prof. SharanjitKaur (Computer Science), Dr Anita Narang (Botany), Dr Neeti Mishra (Chemistry)
Project Leads: Mr Ayush Mishra, andMr Vaibhav Thapliyal, B.Sc (H) Physics II Year

Unnatural circumstances need innovative solutions and COVID-19 brings such situations for academics where normal offline education came to a halt. Theoretical concepts were being delivered to students online but for understanding practical concepts a hands–on approach was missing. Acharya Narendra Dev College under the able vision of its principal, Prof. Ravi Toteja conceptualized the idea of Virtual lab (V-Lab) to provide remote access of various labs to the undergraduate science students through the internet, and thus became the first college in the University of Delhi to start V-Lab at its campus.

Virtual lab allows the student to understand, learn and perform the practical on their own remotely with a click of the mouse. It provides a complete Learning Management System (LMS) where students can avail the various learning, including additional web-resources, video-lectures, animated demonstrations and self-evaluation. Web enabled experiments have been designed for remote operation and viewing so as to enthuse the curiosity and innovation into students. This would help them in learning basic and advanced concepts through remote experimentation.

The course structure of various labs and experiments available on V-Lab@ANDC is futuristic, following a four quadrant model for e-content, and is developed considering the National Education Policy (NEP)-2020. V-Lab@ANDC website is created and maintained by our own students for four domains i.e. Biological Science, Chemical Science, Electronics and Physical Science which include seven departments i.e. Biomedical Science, Botany, Chemistry, Computer Science, Electronics, Physics and Zoology.

Although the V-Lab@ANDC was initiated to tackle the COVID related problems in teaching and learning process but is not confined to it. Students now can perform their experiments 24 X 7, on even sophisticated and expensive instruments, multiple times and at their ease without wasting the resources and can even generate the measured data for at least a few experiments.

Through V-Lab@ANDC we are proving the ideology of our college 'Preparing for the future' by exploring and innovating 'Beyond the classroom' or rather 'Beyond the Practical Lab'.

The lab is developed under four domains:

Sub: Opportunity for socially active & politically sensitive final year students of your esteemed institution to join MIT School of Government, Pune for attractive career opportunities in Politics!

Respected Sir / Madam,

Greetings to you from the MIT School of Government!

I take this opportunity to introduce you to MIT School of Government (MIT-SOG), Pune. The first institute in India & Asia to initiate a one-year full time political leadership training program titled "Master's Program in Government (MPG)" after graduation for young & dynamic youth. This has been conceptualized in 2005 by Shri. Rahul V. Karad, Executive President - MIT World Peace University, Founder & Convenor – Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, National Teacher's Congress & National Women's Parliament. The one-year program is conducted in academic alliance with Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS), Mumbai; Rajiv Gandhi National Institute of Youth Development (RGNIYD); supported by UNESCO Chair for Human Rights, Democracy, Peace and Tolerance, World Peace Centre, Pune.

The recent changes in the Indian Political scenario have made this sector very competitive, demanding requisite knowledge & skills. Thus, many requirements have risen for trained/skilled manpower in Politics. In past 12 years, 400 of our alumni have completed the program. Many of them have contested elections for Gram Panchayat, State Assembly or Lok Sabha, while others are serving in different capacities as Political Analyst, Political Consultant, Campaign managers, Election managers, Policy Associates, Public Relations executive etc. Some are associated with office of Chief Ministers, Union Ministers & Ministers of State. With the objective of providing young leaders for the service of the nation who can face the challenges of today and lead the nation on the path of development, we have been conducting the Master's Program in Government (MPG) since 2005.

In this endeavor to provide the right candidature towards the enormous task of nation building through active role in politics and government, we request you to put our program information flyer on the institute's notice board and keep a copy of the program brochure in library for students' reference. If feasible we would like to have an opportunity to address the final year students along with the academic staff at your campus through an interactive session on the emerging career opportunities and leadership roles in the field of Politics & Government. Our response tables are manned as below – Mr. Amol 9146038942, Ms. Manali 9850897039.

Upon arrival, the students were given a brief presentation on the history and background of Yakult, which was founded in 1935 by microbiologist Minoru Shirota. They were then taken on a guided tour of the company's facilities, which included the manufacturing plant, quality control laboratories, and the distribution center. Our tour began with a brief introduction to Yakult's history and the production process. The production process starts with the preparation of the milk base, which is pasteurized and homogenized. The milk is then mixed with a solution of sugar, skim milk powder, and other ingredients. The mixture is heated and sterilized to eliminate any harmful bacteria. After sterilization, the mixture is cooled and inoculated with the Lactobacillus casei Shirota bacteria. The inoculated mixture is then placed in fermentation tanks, where it is kept at a constant temperature of around 37°C for 6 to 7 days. During this time, the bacteria ferment the lactose in the milk, producing lactic acid and other byproducts. The lactic acid causes the pH of the mixture to drop, which creates a sour taste and inhibits the growth of harmful bacteria.

The tour provided a comprehensive understanding of the manufacturing process and the company's commitment to quality and hygiene. The students were impressed by the efficiency and cleanliness of the manufacturing plant, which was equipped with state-of-the-art machinery. Following the tour, the students participated in educational sessions on Yakult's probiotic technology and the health benefits of probiotics. They were shown the scientific studies that demonstrated the effectiveness of Yakult's probiotics in improving gut health and strengthening the immune system. They also learned about the various types of Yakult products available in the market, including Yakult Light, Yakult Ace, and Yakult Calorie Off.

The visit to the Yakult Company was a great learning experience for the students. They gained a better understanding of the probiotic drink manufacturing process, learned about Yakult's history, mission, and vision, and were able to see firsthand how the company operates. The visit also provided the students with insights into the company's marketing strategies and its commitment to innovation and sustainability. Overall, the visit was informative and engaging, and the students left with a greater appreciation for Yakult and its products.

Visit to CSIR-IHBT

March 27- March 31, 2019

Department of Botany

Acharya Narendra Dev College

A curriculum based excursion of class B.Sc. (H) Botany, semester 6, was organized by the staff members of Department of Botany between march 27-march 31, 2019. The excursion was planned to demonstrate the practical applications of theoretical knowledge which the students are studying in their core and discipline specific elective papers. In this excursion the students visited the CSIR-Institute of Himalayan Bioresource Technology (IHBT) and CSK Himachal Pradesh Krishi Vishvavidyalaya (CSKHPKV), a State Agriculture University, Palampur, Himachal Pradesh. The CSIR-IHBT is a premier institute which focuses on the product based and formulating research e.g. mass multiplication of important floral crops, medicinal plants, edible and medicinal fungi, nutraceuticals and pharmaceuticals, processing of various food and products etc. Firstly, the students visited the 'Biodiversity' block of the institute, where they were first introduced with herbarium techniques and herbarium specimens followed by explicit information on the floral bioresources of the region which includes orchids, seabuckthorn etc.

The microbial culture and down streaming processing unit of IHBT has 'state of art' laboratories in terms of infrastructure and instrumentation. Students were shown the fermenters and bioreactors of different volume capacity. They were explained how the tissue culture raised mass is used for the production of high amount of secondary metabolites after giving the certain stress. They learned and observed the production of 'Ratan jot' in the bioreactors. Students also visited the microbiology laboratories where they were made aware about the isolation of novel bacterial strains from soil, glaciers etc. They were also given a glimpse of methods and techniques involved in microbial characterization. In the same laboratories scientist also gave an idea of utilization of traditional knowledge for the product oriented research. Students were enlightened with the cultivation of an exotic mushroom 'Shittake', which is a delicacy in Japanese cuisines. This mushroom is a rich source of Vitamin D. The scientist explained how they have formulated the preparation of Shittake based capsules to be used as dietary supplements to overcome Vitamin D deficiency.

The RS-GIS laboratory of the institute is constituted by researchers and scientists who are among the leading groups of India, utilizing the new satellite based technology for various aspects. In this laboratory, scientists and researchers explained the applications of RS-GIS for studying forest cover, climate change etc. Students also visited the tissue culture facility of the institute where they observed the in-vitro propagation and mass multiplication of medicinal and threatened plants. A group of scientists also developing low cost hydroponics and aeroponics technology in the IHBT for cut flower industries and conservation of RET medicinal plants. Students were provided an opportunity to observe the working and safeguarding of these facilities. In the tea processing unit of the institute, scientist detailed the students about the tea germplasm, different types of tea and their processing. Students were amazed by seeing a list of products available and formulated by the scientists of IHBT rather than just tea! This product list includes anti-wrinkle cream, tea wine, catechin based products etc.

Students also visited the museum of CSKHPKV. The museum was well managed and full of specimens and photographs of various pests of important crops and their mitigation strategies. The museum well depicted the activities of the university which were oriented towards the employment of youth and local people.

Conclusively it could be said that this visit was like just a dive in the deep sea of knowledge. In future, more visits to such premier institutes may be organized to motivate the students to work in science and for sustainable utilization of the bio-resources.

VIRTUAL FIELD VISIT REPORT

Date: 07/04/2022

Industrial and environmental microbiology (IEM) is a very interesting subject introduced as a part of our semester VI. It holds a keen potential to give students a gist of importance of the basic knowledge we have gathered till now with the course and relates it to the actual working of the industry.

A field visit is an integral part of the course which is very much important as going on a field trip enhances our critical thinking skills and gives us a chance to think about a topic or theme from a different perspective. Additionally, field trips are important because we are able to engage with the content of the course in a variety of ways.

We the students of Department of Botany, Acharya Narendra Dev College went on a field excursion on 23/03/2022 to Forest Research Institute (Dehradun), Kanatal (Dhanualti) and Tehri Lake. The field trip was planned for 4 days so that we get appropriate time to indulge in various activities including the visit to Botanical Vatika in Forest Research Institute(FRI) where we have seen various plants they have conserved along with the endangered species. Also we came to know about many aspects of industrial utilization of plants like Cinnamomum camphora (Camphor tree) and Ganoderma lucidum (Reishi Mushroom) and many others.

In Kanatal we have seen the Rhododendron tree, the state tree symbol of Uttrakhand (locally called as 'Burans') and how its nectar is commercially used to make Squash and also it can be fermented to be made and consumed as a wine.

So the overall trip was a tremendously optimistic experience for us.

Now a visit to an educational institute or an industry to see an industrial fermenter, and other downstream processing operations is also a part of our practicals for the Industrial and Environmental Microbiology semester VI. In order to accomplish so a virtual field visit to Yakult Danone PVT. India LTD. was organized on 07/04/2022 where we have seen the preparation, fermentation process and downstream processing along with the packaging of the same.

Yakult Danone PVT. India LTD

Introduction

The World Health Organization defines probiotics as "live microorganisms which when administered in adequate amounts confer a health benefit on the host"; in order to be labelled a probiotic, scientific evidence for the health benefit would have to be documented. Probiotics are live microorganisms that are intended to have health benefits when consumed or applied to the body. They can be found in yogurt and other fermented foods, dietary supplements, and beauty products. Although people often think of bacteria and other microorganisms as harmful "germs," many are actually helpful. Some bacteria help digest food, destroy disease-causing cells, or produce vitamins. Many of the microorganisms in probiotic products are the same as or similar to microorganisms that naturally live in our bodies.

Yakult Danone India (P) Ltd is a 50:50 joint venture between Yakult Honsha, Japan and Groupe Danone of France, both of which are global probiotic leaders. The joint venture was formed in 2005 to manufacture and sell probiotic products in the Indian market. Yakult, a probiotic drink was launched in India in 2007, and is presently available in Delhi/NCR, Nasik, Chandigarh, Punjab, Jaipur, Mumbai, Pune, Ahmedabad, Hyderabad, Chennai, Bangalore, Kolkata and Lucknow. Yakult is manufactured at an ISO 9001:2008, HACCP and OHSAS 18001:2007 certified manufacturing facility in Sonipat, Haryana in India.

Historical background

In 1907, Ellie Metchnikoff, a Nobel Prize winner, first proposed the beneficial effects of probiotic microorganisms on human health. Metchnikoff hypothesized that Bulgarians were healthy and lived long because of the consumption of fermented milk products which consists of rod shaped bacteria (Lactobacillus spp.). He is today known as the 'Father of Probiotics'.

In 1930, Dr. Minoru Shirota, a scientist in japan became the first in the world to succeed in culturing a strain of Lactic acid bacteria beneficial to human health. He named that strain Lactobacillus casei shirota (LCS strain) and was able to manufacture the first bottle of Yakult in 1935.

What is inside a bottle of Yakult?

Ingredients: Water, sugar, milk, glucose, natural flavors, Lactobacillus Casei Shirota

It has been reported that one bottle of Yakult probiotic drink contains about 6.5 billion beneficial bacteria of LCS. Also, the company claims that it is made without preservatives, stabilizers and artificial coloring. The storage of the same should be made below 10° C.

Lactobacillus Casei Shirota* (LCS) safety approvals:

- Generally Recognized As Safe (GRAS) from US FDA.
- Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) product approval in India.
- Food for Specified Health Uses (FOSHU) from Japan.

Departments available : The various departments available in the Yakult unit which have their own roles in manufacturing the probiotic drink are as follows:

- Seed room
- Dissolving tank area
- Culturing tank area
- Storage and Mixing area
- Homogenizer
- IBM- Bottle manufacturing area
- Filling and packaging area
- Quality Control area

C) Diagrammatic representation of Flowchart of overall process of manufacturing

Here is the flowchart that describes how a bottle of Yakult Probiotic Drink is manufactured:

Dissolving Tank

The skim milk powder is dissolved in hot water of 50-55°C in the dissolving tank to make a milk solution.

Culture Tank

From the dissolving tank, the milk solution is heat sterilised before it is transferred to a culture tank. It will then be cooled to 37°C. The culture starter, L. casei strain Shirota from the seed tank will be added into the tank. The solution is allowed to ferment until the number of L. casei strain Shirota reaches an ideal concentration and the solution will change into curd form known as culture base.

Storage Tank

After the fermentation, the milk becomes sour and therefore the sour milk is being transferred into the storage tank and syrup will be added in to counteract the sourness of the milk. The capacity of the storage tank is 7000 L, which can make about 1,40,000 bottles of Yakult. The Yakult in this tank is kept at concentrated form and the tank will be chilled to the temperature of 5°C.

Mixing Tank

The concentrated Yakult will be transferred to a mixing tank and diluted with sterilised water. Natural flavours and permitted colouring will be added at this stage for flavoured Yakult and the diluted mixture will then be transferred to the filling tank.

Bottle Moulding Machine

The plastic bottles are produced by the moulding machine at the speed of 7000 bottles per hour. These bottles which are made of food-grade polystyrene are transported by a clean air blower through a duct to the bottle storage tank.

Selector Machine

Empty bottles are released from the bottle storage tank into a large circular selector which places the bottles in an upright position before being sent to the printing machine.

Printing Machine

The printing machine will print Yakult logo with the product information on the empty bottles using instant-dry red ink.

Filling, Capping & Sealing Machine

The printed bottles will be sent to the filling machine which has the capacity to fill 30,000 bottles with 100ml Yakult per hour. At this stage, the bottles are capped and sealed with an aluminium foil that has the use-by date printed.

Packaging Machine

The finished Yakult will be sorted in single bottles or in a pack of 5 bottles that is shrink-wrapped. Yakult currently manufactures its two products, one the regular Yakult and another one is the premium product sold under the name of Yakult Lite. All crates containing the Yakult will be transported to the cold room by the conveyor belt.

The finished products are stored at a temperature of 5°C to ensure they will always remain at the best condition till the delivery for distribution.

Distribution

Yakult stored in the cold room will now be ready for delivery by refrigerated trucks for distribution. It is distributed via Direct sales or by Home Delivery.

The strain LCS is transported to India from Japan in every 6 months in lyophilised form. Also it has been reported that the shelf life of a Yakult bottle under optimised condition is for about 40 days.

Fermentation :

The fermentation performed is a Batch fermentation. Batch fermentation is one type of industrial fermentation in which products are harvested at batch wise while stopping the process at the end of each batch. In batch fermentation, in the beginning, nutrients and microorganisms are added and the process is run. It is a closed system and relatively a large fermenter is used. Microbial growth occurs via lag phase, log phase, and stationary phase. Once the fermentation process completes, process is stopped and products are harvested. Before the next batch, fermenter is cleaned and the second batch is started newly.

Yakult is currently using a special customised fermenter for its fermentation processes.

One batch of the same takes about 10-15 days of time. The tank holds the capacity to contain the product sufficient for 9 lakhs bottle at a time. The Sonipat unit has about 12 tanks of 7000 L and 4000 L capacity.

Some more information :

- Yakult has made two research centres in Japan and Belgium which are actively working to find the role of probiotics as a cure or alternative to current medicinal practices.
- The market size of Yakult is about 30 Million daily customers worldwide. It is currently present in over 40 countries globally.
- It has launched Yakult Lady System for the home delivery of Yakult where they hire Women as their delivery agent so as to promote and support Women Empowerment Campaign.

Conclusion:

The virtual trip to Yakult Danone PVT. India LTD, Sonipat is a must and a great learning experience. As a student of Industrial and Environmental Microbiology (IEM), not only this trip enhances our knowledge about the subject but also gave us a view from a career prospective. Knowing about how a strain isolated in a lab turns into a billion dollar company is really fascinating and encouraging. We came to know how the Batch fermentation which we have studied as our theory part is actually been applied in the real industry setup and how it is been used to meet the daily requirement of the product. Such field visits are necessary not just to boost our confidence but also they leave us with the analytical thinking and ample examples which are still undiscovered.

REPORT

Three day educational trip was organized by the Department of Botany, Acharya Narendra Dev College, University of Delhi from 27th June 2022 to 30th June, 2022 to Mukteshwar and Nainital, Uttarakhand. The tour was coordinated by Dr. Geetika Kalra, Dr. Sumit Sahni and Dr. Anita Thakur.

27th May, 2022 Departure from College Campus: Students were instructed to gather at the college campus at around 8 PM. All the students checked their luggage in the bus and left for Mukteshwar at 11:00 PM from the college campus. The bus reached the destination on 28th June at 7:30 AM in the morning.

28th May, 2022 Day-1:

The group reached the hotel at 7:30 AM and after freshening went for tracking along with teachers and support staff to Okhalkanda. This was a 3 km long forest track. The forest was dense and thick and was full of many species of bryophytes, pteridophytes and gymnosperms along with abundance of angiosperms. Archegoniatae members like Marchantia, Pteridium, Pteris, Selaginella etc were abundantly growing near the streams. Numerous species of fungi and lichens were seen all through the beautiful track.. After walking for about 3 km, reached a serene waterfall deep inside the forest. After spending memorable 3 hours on the beautiful trek, walk on return to the hotel was also academically enriching. The students got a feel of nature at work and learnt to appreciate botany, while enjoying the environment through nature walk. It was impressive to know how the plant world is specific with reference to the habitat requirement which also throws light on evolutionary history and relationships of plants and the ecology of wetlands and forests. The day was called off with the lightening of bonfire. Everybody had a great time enoying , laughing and playing around the bonfire.

29th May, 2022 Day-2:

The day started with breakfast and straight away went to Bhalugarh waterfalls. There Pine trees growing on the way made the journey fascinating. There were fungi and lichens growing all over the walls of the rocks and tree barks. On reaching the waterfalls, students spent time clicking photographs and enjoying the mesmerizing view of the forest and the water fall. After that visit to TERI research center but due to sudden start of rains couldn't visit the place properly. The visit was cut short and came back for lunch at the hotel. After having lunch, a visit was planned for Central Institute of Temperate Horticulture. There mesmerising view of saw many varieties of apples, plums, peaches, apricots welcomed us. The students were given hands on demonstration in the laboratory adjoining the institute orchards and also learnt about the research going around developing different varieties of apples and apricots and got familiar with different diseases related to these plants and how the institute is educating the local farmers and helping them solve their issues regarding the cultivation of these crops. The Institute head, Dr. Arun Kishore explained about different techniques and methods which are employed to carry out the study of biochemical parameters of the fruit varieties developed at the institute. It was really very informative trip. The trip was followed by the warning of heavy rains near the area so it was advised to call it a day in time.

30th May, 2022 Day-3:

It was a hectic day for us as the weather was not favorable. The group checked out from the hotel at 9:30 AM and left for Nainital. On the way students visited Organic Tea Garden and learnt the techniques of tea leaf processing and we enjoyed the place thoroughly as the weather was at its best. After 4 hr travel, reached Nainital, it was raining heavily and the entire area was engulfed by heavy fog. After reaching there, had lunch and went to Naini lake for boating.

The tour was a delightful experience for all. It was an opportunity for all to get a good botanical exposure and learn about the diversity of variety of archegoniatae members in real time. Tour was also a platform for students to get a taste of local food, understand the culture and appreciate the beauty of the unexplored places and develop a strong bonding between each other.

8. Research Based Pedagogy Tools (RBPT) Based Workshop On Microbial Techniques

Report

Department organized a three day workshop on "Microbial Techniques" based on RBPT (Research Based Pedagogical Tools) from 12-14 March 2018 under the aegis of DBT star college scheme.

Participants were given hands-on experience of Luria Bertani (LB) and LB agar media preparation, autoclaving and laminar hood, use for inoculation, spreading and streaking of bacteria (E. coli) in LB and LB agar plates respectively. Lectures on preparation of competent cells, transformation and screening techniques were delivered by various faculty members. The process was also demonstrated througha video film. This was followed by hands-on preparation of the competent cells by the participants. Hands-on transformation of E. coli and inoculation on selection and screening media was performed by the students.

The concluding session was based on RBPT and was conducted by Dr Rashmi Sharma, wherein the participants were given an opportunity to represent their learning, understanding and applications of the microbial techniques on a poster. Participants were divided into random group of three and each group was asked to prepare one poster on application of their learning and experience gained during the workshop for which they were allotted 3 hours and allowed access to study material from library and internet to ease their task. The posters were all displayed together and evaluated by a committee. Each member of the respective group actively participated and openly defended their ideas and proposed application of the techniques they learnt in the workshop.

Objective and Scope

The Primary objective of the workshop is to gain the insight of various basic techniques used in microbial laboratory by hands-on training and practical demonstrations. The workshop will provide the right exposure to the students at the undergraduate level and it is highly relevant in terms of advances in the contemporary era of microbial biotechnology. It's also a rare opportunity for students from non-biological courses to join in and gain hands on insight into the world of bacteria!

Focus Area

In addition to their multifarious roles 'bacteria' are an ideal candidate for genetic engineering. They are relatively simple, single celled organisms with DNA not bound in any organelle. Available as an inexhaustible supply, they are easy to reproduce and so can be manipulated under laboratory conditions. The workshop will provide up-to-date knowledge in the field of practical microbiology with special reference to bacteria. It will encompass the basics of the laboratory techniques starting with setting up a bacterial culture up to bacterial transformation.

Topics to be covered

- Introduction to microbiological lab-work: Sterilization, disinfecting, steps and instruments/ equipment used for microbial culture
- Nutrient media: Different types and preparation
- Bacterial culture: Basis of characterization, classification and identification of bacteria, Streaking, plating, incubation, evaluation of culture and storage of culture
- Bacterial Transformation: Preparation of competent cell, transformation by heat shock method followed by blue white screening to identify positive transformants.
- Application in genomics, industry
- Plasmid DNA isolation

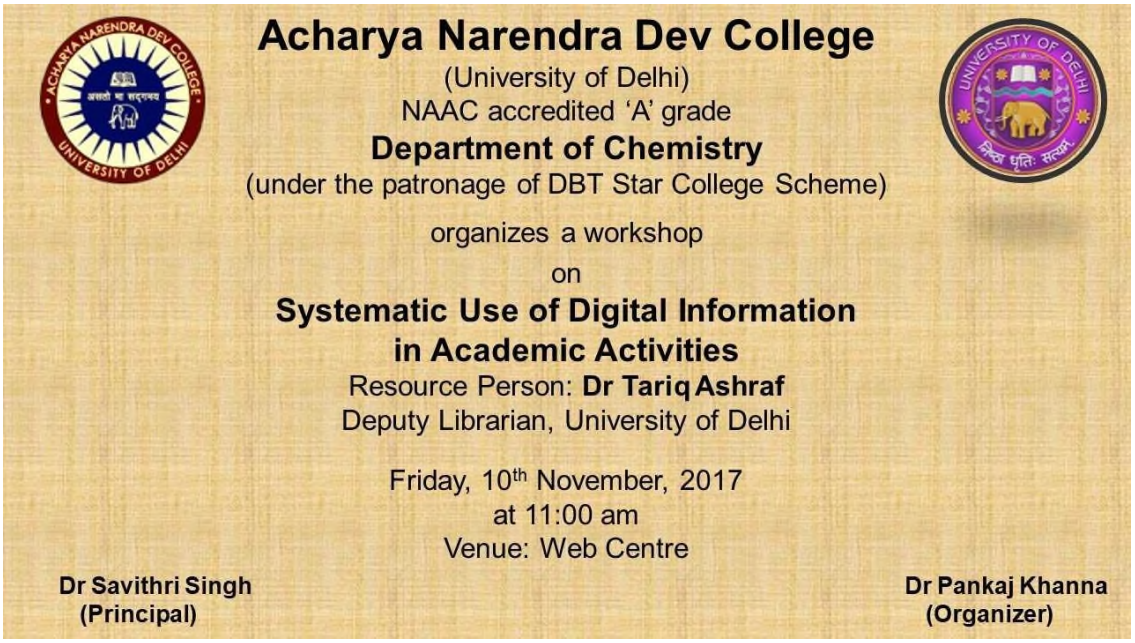
10.Workshop on 'Systematic Use of Digital Information in Academic Activities'



Report

A workshop was organised by the Department of Chemistry, under the support of DBT Star College Scheme, on 10th November 2017 at the Web Centre. The workshop, with the theme of 'Systematic Use of Digital Information in Academic Activities', had an esteemed presence of Dr Tariq Ashraf (Deputy Librarian, University of Delhi) as the resource person. More than seventy students and faculty members participated in the workshop.

Dr Ashraf highlighted various aspects of Digital Information starting with various possible resources for the same. He then deliberated on the University of Delhi Library System in detail. The focus here was to let the students understand different e-resources such as books, journals and articles and ways to search them under varied criteria viz. author, year of publication. The hands-on mode at the web centre of the college helped the students to learn the techniques upfront and clear their doubts. The discussion was taken to the next level by including the concepts of Plagiarism and publication ethics.

The workshop was well attended by the students as well as faculty and was a great success and learning experience.

12. Workshop on 'Introduction to Foss and Linux'

REPORT

As the college welcomed its first-year students, a workshop on "Introduction to Foss and Linux" was conducted by the Department of Computer Science under Star Scheme. The primary motive of 3 days workshop was to make students familiar and aware with following two concepts: firstly, need of Free and Open Source Software (FOSS) and secondly, Use of Linux Operating System. The workshop was held from 8th August 2017 to 11th August 2017 in Web Facilitation Center of the college. Volunteers were second year students of Computer Science(H) and Physical Science with Computer Science. The total number of active participants in the workshop were 735 from the 13 courses running in the college viz. B. Sc. Physics(H), B. Sc. Botany(H), B. Sc. Zoology(H), B. Sc. Chemistry(H), B. Sc. Maths(H), B. Sc. Electronics(H), B. Sc. Computer Science(H), B. Sc. BMS(H), B. Com (H), B. SC. Physical Science with Computer Science, B. SC. Physical Science with Chemistry, B. SC. Physical Science with Electronics and B. Sc. Life Sciences. These students were divided in 7 slots with 4 sessions (of three hours) in each slot.

- Session 1: First session was conducted on introduction to the operating system with emphasis on Linux (45 minutes). Further, light was thrown on Free and Open Source Software(FOSS) with prominence on it's usage in Linux.
- Session 2 : Second session (25 minutes) explained contrasting softwares of Linux and Windows. The students were also familiarized with basic Linux commands like cd, ls etc.
- Session 3 : Third session (40 minutes) illustrated the working of Libre Office Suite (Doc Writer, Calc and Impress).
- Session 4: Fourth session was primarily a practice session of 60 minutes consisting of exercises like bio-data on doc-writer, evaluating salary on calc and school presentation on impress.

In a nutshell, the workshop was a huge success. All the students participated in the workshop enthusiastically to learn the work on Linux which was indeed the main aim of the workshop. In fact, the whole event turned into healthy interactive sessions. As the students wanted to learn more they cleared their doubts from the volunteers who pioneered them.

13. Workshop on 'Anxiety at Workplace'

Workshop on "Anxiety at Workplace" Department, of Zoology organized a workshop entitled, 'Anxiety at Workplace' on August 25, 2017 at 1:00 p.m. in the Conference Hall. The Workshop was conducted by noted psychiatrist Dr S.A. Basir. In the Workshop, Dr Basir provided the participants an insight into the field of anxiety management. He started the Workshop by identifying the major causes of anxiety, particularly those which are prevalent at the Workplace. He then revealed that workplace related anxiety is escalating at an alarming rate and that 1 out of every 4 persons is suffering from an anxiety-related disorder. He concluded the workshop by discussing the small changes that each person can make in their lifestyles to lead a life devoid of stress and anxiety. The Workshop was attended by 41 participants. The participants of the Workshop participated enthusiastically in the discussions and felt that the Workshop had equipped them to handle anxiety with a much more logical and scientific approach.

14. A one day seminar, IPR awareness and Social Insects

Department of Zoology organized one day seminar on "IPR awareness & social insects on September 5, 2017, under the aegis of MHRD IPR Chair and DBT Star College Scheme. The schedule of the workshop was as follows:

Title of the Talk	Speaker
Importance of IPR and its Protection	Mr. R. Saha (Advisor CII & Former Director PFC, TIFAC, DST)
Patent, Patenting Procedure & Patent Search	Dr. Rekha Chaturvedi (IPR Chair Professor, DU)
Industrial Design & its Registration	Ms. Amanpreet Kaur (Project Assistant under IPR Chair)
Copyright	Dr. Rekha Chaturvedi (IPR Chair Professor, DU)
The Wonder World of Social Insects	Dr. Debjani De (Principal Scientist, Division of Entomology, IARI, Pusa)

In today's globalizing knowledge based economy, protecting Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) is very important. Therefore, the effective application of IPR in the creation, implementation & development in the field of education is critical. Apart from the realizing the importance of IPR on one hand, to attain more understanding on the behavior of social insects is equally important.

There was huge number of participants from all the Departments of the college. The program included two technical sessions. First session was focussed on "IPR awareness", that included discussions & importance of IPRs and their protection, Patenting procedures, searches, patentable and non-patentable inventions, copyright protection, issues of do’s and don’ts in the context. The workshop was co-ordinated by Dr. Seema Makhija.

Department of Computer Science, Acharya Narendra Dev college, in collaboration with ICT Academy under star scheme 2018-19, organized a two-day Faculty Development Program on "Emotional Intelligence (EI)". In this Faculty Development Program, the participants got to know about the importance of Emotional Intelligence(EI) over Intelligence Quotient(IQ). The talk emphasized on awareness of self emotion and social emotion(other people). The Day one concentrated on the need of emotional intelligence in day to day activities. The talk enriched the participants based on various activities like Questionnaire, group discussion and story telling. The Day two concentrated on emotional hijacking, Stress Management and its importance to both college teachers and employers. Stress management focused on day to day functioning and improving the negative emotions to have a balanced life. It narrows your ability to think clearly, function effectively, and enjoy life. The FDP was aimed at enhancing the skill set of participants. The Session was very interactive as the participants were given an EI test and they have been told about their Emotional quotient grounded on their scores.

At the end of the programme, participants gave the feedback at the ICT's online portal. Subsequently, participants have been awarded with the E-certificates. Session ended with the vote of thanks by Dr. Harita Ahuja. The FDP proved to be extremely informative and was a great success with participation from around 30 faculty members from various Universities

The discussion also focused on how industry giants like Netflix and Amazon apply chaos engineering to strengthen their systems. Simian Army, an open source tool by Netflix was discussed with the students. This tool allows engineers to test reliability, security, resilience, and recoverability of the cloud services of Amazon Web Services (AWS) infrastructure. Overall the talk was an informative session for the students.

Mam started session with taking the initiative about turing machine invented by Alan Turing in 1935 and then she made students to know about imitation game and the question that arises in Turing's mind that can machines think? Other important aspects taken by mam are described as:

- Turing test: The Turing test, developed by Alan Turing in 1950, is a test of a machine's ability to exhibit intelligent behavior equivalent to, or indistinguishable from, that of a human.
- Intelligence: 1. Human intelligence (Not a single ability or cognitive process) 2. Machine intelligence (Learning: Machine must be able to adapt to new situations; Reasoning)

- Expert systems: 1) Mycin - diagnosing infectious diseases. 2) Dendral -identifying unknown organic molecule.
- Preconception/neural network: in recent years, with dramatic improvements in computer models of perception brought about by "deep learning" approaches. In now days neural networks are the basis for artificial intelligence.
- Artificial intelligence(AI) tools: Neural networks, Support Vector Machines, Deep learning

- Deep learning: means using a neural network with several layers of nodes between input and output. Recent Advances using DL: AlphaGo, Image Recognition, Driverless cars

At the end convenor of Turing society delivered a vote of thanks and concluded the session. Then principal mam gifted the guest a token of appreciation. 30. Paradigm shift in Physics Education through hands-on techniques in Optics

Report

The Hands-on workshop involved clearing the concept of Total Internal Reflection (TIR). It is a phenomenon that occurs when light travels from a medium with a higher refractive index to a medium with a lower refractive index, and the angle of incidence is greater than the critical angle. In this case, the light is completely reflected back into the medium with the higher refractive index, rather than being transmitted into the medium with the lower refractive index. The critical angle is the angle of incidence at which the refracted angle becomes 90 degrees. If the angle of incidence is greater than the critical angle, the light is completely reflected back into the medium with the higher refractive index. This phenomenon is useful in a variety of applications, including optical fibers, prisms, and binoculars. One of the most common applications of total internal reflection is in optical fibers. Optical fibers are long, thin strands of glass or plastic that are used to transmit light over long distances. The fiber consists of a core, which has a higher refractive index than the surrounding cladding, and a protective outer coating. When light is introduced into the fiber at one end, it is transmitted through the core by total internal reflection. The light reflects off the boundary between the core and the cladding, which prevents it from escaping the fiber. The light can be transmitted over long distances with little or no loss of signal, making optical fibers ideal for use in telecommunications, medical equipment, and other applications where high-speed, low-loss transmission is critical. Prisms are another example of how total internal reflection can be used. A prism is a piece of glass or other transparent material with flat, polished surfaces that refract and reflect light. When light enters a prism at an angle greater than the critical angle, it is reflected back into the prism and undergoes multiple reflections before exiting at a different angle. This allows prisms to be used to split light into its component colors, as well as for other optical applications. In conclusion, total internal reflection is a useful phenomenon that occurs when light travels from a medium with a higher refractive index to a medium with a lower refractive index at an angle greater than the critical angle. This phenomenon is used in a wide range of applications, including optical fibers, prisms, and binoculars, and plays a critical role in modern technology and communication.

In the workshop TIR was investigated using pen LASERs. LASER stands for "Light Amplification by Stimulated Emission of Radiation." It is a device that emits a beam of light through a process of optical amplification based on the stimulated emission of photons. LASERs produce a coherent and monochromatic beam of light that can be focused into a narrow beam and used for a variety of applications, including cutting and welding, medical procedures, and communication technologies. The properties of LASERs, such as their high intensity and directional beam, make them a powerful tool in many fields of science and technology, and they continue to be an important area of research and development today.

38. Surface Plasmon Resonance (SPR) and UV-Visible Spectroscopy: Basic working principle and Environmental Applications

Report

Surface Plasmon Resonance (SPR) is a powerful optical technique that is widely used in various fields, including biosensors, drug discovery, and materials science. SPR is based on the interaction between an electromagnetic field and the oscillation of electrons at the interface between a metal and a dielectric material. One of the main applications of SPR is in biosensing. SPR biosensors are used to detect and quantify biomolecules, such as proteins, DNA, and cells, in real-time and label-free. SPR biosensors can provide highly sensitive and specific detection of biomolecules, and they have been widely used in various fields, such as medical diagnosis, drug discovery, and food safety. Another application of SPR is in the study of material properties. SPR can be used to investigate the optical and electronic properties of thin films, nanoparticles, and other nanostructures. SPR can provide information about the refractive index, thickness, and composition of the materials, as well as their interaction with the surrounding environment. Furthermore, SPR has been used in the development of plasmonic devices, such as plasmonic waveguides, filters, and modulators. Plasmonic devices can manipulate the light at the nanoscale, leading to potential applications in photonics, data storage, and optical computing. In summary, SPR is a versatile and powerful technique that has a wide range of applications in biosensing, materials science, and photonics. The development of SPR-based technologies is expected to continue to advance these fields and enable new applications in the future.

UV-Visible spectroscopy is a widely used technique in chemistry, biochemistry, and materials science for the analysis of molecules and materials. UV-Visible spectroscopy measures the absorption of light in the UV and visible regions of the electromagnetic spectrum, which provides information about the electronic structure and properties of the samples. One of the main applications of UV-Visible spectroscopy is in the determination of concentration and purity of samples. UV-Visible spectroscopy can be used to quantify the amount of a substance in a sample based on its absorbance at a specific wavelength. This method is commonly used in pharmaceutical and biotech industries to monitor the concentration of active ingredients and impurities in drugs and biologics. UV-Visible spectroscopy is also widely used in the study of chemical reactions and kinetics. The absorbance changes of a reactant or product over time can be monitored using UV-Visible spectroscopy, which provides information about the rate and mechanism of the reaction. In addition, UV-Visible spectroscopy is a valuable tool for the characterization of materials, such as pigments, dyes, and polymers. The absorption spectra of these materials can provide information about their electronic and optical properties, such as the color, stability, and reactivity. Furthermore, UV-Visible spectroscopy is used in the study of biological molecules, such as proteins, nucleic acids, and enzymes. The absorption spectra of these molecules can provide information about their structure, conformation, and interactions. In summary, UV-Visible spectroscopy is a versatile and widely used technique that has a broad range of applications in chemistry, biochemistry, and materials science. The development of new methods and instrumentation is expected to further expand the applications of UV-Visible spectroscopy in the future.

Statistics or state arithmetic, as called in the roman era, is not a new field, in fact it dates back to as early as 1st century B.C with roots in real life applications. In the current scenario, the statistical methods are used extensively in mathematics,biology, medicine, physics, chemistry, engineering, environmental science, sociology andseveral other interdisciplinary fields. Thus, making the knowledge of various toolsand techniques in statistical analysis and how to effectively use them for researchand decision making as an imperative tool for any scientific endeavour. To upkeep these goals,withthe kind counsel of our advisory team comprised of Dr Garima Gupta, Scientist E, Department of Biotechnology; Prof C S Lalitha, Head and Dean, Faculty of Mathematical Sciences, University of Delhi; Professor Umesh Rai, Head, Department of Zoology, University of Delhi; Professor S B Babbar, Head, Department of Botany, University of Delhi; Professor ShobhaBagai, Cluster Innovation Centre, University of Delhi; Dr.Anjan, Associate Professor and Head, Department of Natural Resource Management and Geoinformatics, Khallikote University; Prof. Daman Saluja, Director, Dr. B R Ambedkar Centre for Biomedical Research(ACBR), University of Delhi; Dr. Abdullah A Ansari, Assistant Professor, International Centre for Advanced Interdisciplinary Research; Dr.Kamlesh Jangid, Assistant Professor, Department of Mathematics, Rajasthan Technical University; and Dr. Manish Khandelwal, Assistant Professor, Department of Mathematics, Indira Gandhi National Tribal University (IGNTU), Amarkantak, this workshop has been meticulously designed to provide knowledge on statistical modelling, data mining, and fitting statistical models to data in real-world applications using various statistical analysis tools like R and SPSS.

The information about the webinar was disseminated on various official social medial channels of the college including instagram, facebook, twitter and college website with few selective sessions of the workshop to be released on college’syoutube channel as well. Approximately, 205 participants including undergraduate and postgraduate students, research scholars and academicians from all over the country, registered for the event after paying the registration fee of Rs. 100 for ANDC Students (UG and PG), Rs. 200 for other Students (UG and PG), Rs 500 for Research Scholars, and Rs 1000 for Industry Sponsored individuals.

During this 15 day long workshop, two sessions were being conducted almost every day by the eminent speakers - Professor T R Rao, IISER, Berhampur; Professor Ram Kumar, Central University of South Bihar; Professor Aditi Gangopadhaya, Department of Mathematics, IIT-Roorkee; Dr Mohd. They gave lectures on the broad themes of Fundamentals of Statistics (special reference to biology), Data types and collection, Sampling techniques, Measures of central tendency and Measures of dispersion, Correlation and Regression Analysis, Statistical inference, Estimation procedures, hypothesis testing (Student's 't' test, chi square test, F test), Introduction to Binomial, Poisson and Normal distribution, and uses of advance softwares (R, SPSS and Sigmaplot) in modern biostatistics. The end of every session was followed by a Q & A session, where all the attendees actively participated and all of their doubts and queries were answered.

The workshop ended with a lively valedictory session with speeches by Prof Ravi Toteja, Prof BalaramPani, Prof T R Rao, Dr Amit Kumar Misra, several participants and a formal vote of thanks by Dr Rashmi Sharma. SESSION I:

Theme: Science & Society

"How to enhance science by making it equitable and inclusive"

Prof. Chandralekha Singh, Department of Physics and Astronomy, University of Pittsburgh

Session Coordinators: Dr. Princy Hira (Maitreyi College, DU) & Dr. Utkarsh Sood (TERI)

Student Coordinators: Riya (B. Sc Hons. Zoology, Sem III, DDUC)

Chandralekha Singh is a professor in the Department of Physics and Astronomy and the Founding Director of the Discipline-based Science Education Research Center (dB-SERC) at the University of Pittsburgh. She is currently the Past President of the American Association of Physics Teachers. She obtained her B.Sc. and M.Sc. degrees from the Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur and her Ph.D. in theoretical condensed matter physics from the University of California Santa Barbara. She was a postdoctoral fellow at the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign, before joining the University of Pittsburgh. She has been conducting research in physics education for more than two decades. She co-led the US team to the International Conference on Women in Physics in Birmingham UK in 2017. She is a Fellow of the American Physical Society, American Association for the Advancement of Science and American Association of Physics Teachers. More information about her can be found at https://sites.google.com/site/professorsinghswebpage/

Prof. Chandralekha Singh commenced her enlightening lecture by showing a picture of Solvay conference 1927, in which there was only one women and after that she has shown a picture of present conference, in which also there were very few womens. This demonstrated that even today there is not much difference in the condition. After this, she has discussed about stereotype threat that is the fear of confronting a negative stereotype about onself. She also discussed about a survey in which it is observed that the instructor who believe that their students are able to excel the things, are the one who actually don't believe in the minority and majority people in the class. She emphasized on the fact that the goal of a teacher should be empowering each and every student of the class, instead of giving opportunities to the people who are already privileged. After this she highlighted the point that teachers should consider themselves as coaches and think about offences along with the defences. Defense means students should feel that they belong in a particular community or classroom. They should also have identity as a person who can excel in science.

Instructors often only focus on content knowledge and skills to improve student engagement and learning in science courses. However, students' sense-of-belonging, self-efficacy and mindset can also play an important role in their engagement and success in science. For example, students' sense of belonging in a science class, their self-efficacy, and views about whether intelligence in science is "fixed" or "malleable" can affect engagement and learning. These types of concerns can especially impact the learning outcomes of women and other underrepresented students and stereotype threats can exacerbate these issues. I will discuss prior research studies that show how different types of social psychological interventions (e.g., social belonging and growth mindset) have improved the motivation and learning outcomes of all students, especially women and underrepresented minorities in science fields. We will discuss how ecological belonging interventions can be adapted and implemented in science classes to make them more equitable and inclusive. These types of interventions are short even though they have the potential to impact student outcomes significantly—especially for underrepresented students in science classes.

She ended the session, by highlighting the importance of creating a safe environment, where all students, particularly those who are from under representative groups should also feel comfortable in participating in the community or all the activities that are conducted actively in a classroom or community. This will help to create a classroom equitable and inclusive.

An interactive question/answer session followed the lecture.

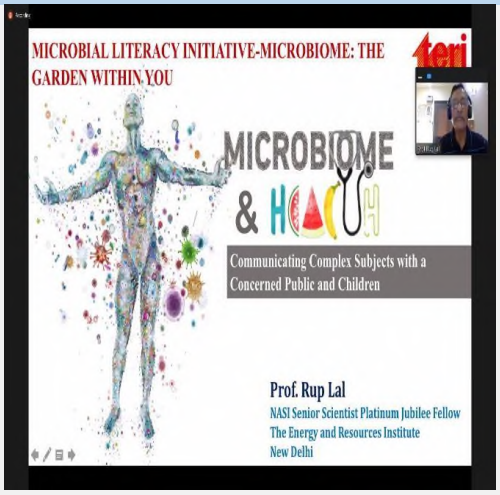
He is recipient of various prestigious awards and fellowships.



Prof. Rup Lal discussed about Microbiome and Health - Microbes like Archaea, Viruses, Bacteria, SARS-COV-2 in which he told how such invisible viruses, made up of just protein coat and a nuclei acid have the power to subvert a formidable host like a human being with the help of simple mathematics examples. Then he continued with Metagenomics (some application of modern technique to study of communities of microbial organisms), Human microbiome, what these Human Microbiome do in Our Human body, how we derived daily calories from microbial genes (Plant Carbohydrate), How Human brain and Gut microbes are interlinked as Second brain and Virtual Endocrine Organ? He also supported his talked by a list of problems human beings faced if microbiome and human beings balance goes wrong, further he added list of good and bad bacteria with daily-life examples, he made the participants aware about FMT (Fecal Microbiota Transplantation) -therapy for gastric ailments and how we can stay healthy. He also focused on life style, food habits and drugs/antibiotics, obesity related changes supported by a good project- How to lose weight by changing the gut microbiome in this Covid -19 Lockdown? He also shared information about the outreach program that his group has been organizing since 2016 under INSA i. e BaSIC- Bani School Innovation Camp in remote /rural areas of Himachal Pradesh.

He is now enthusiastically working in the field of comparative genomics, microbiome studies, and secondary metabolites of bacteria.

In Microsphere 2021, Dr. Sood familiarized the participants with role of microbiology in attaining the sustainable development goals as set by United Nations and its member countries through his lecture titled "Microbes and Sustainable Goals".

He emphasized the role of three pillars in attaining SDGs viz. Economics, Environment and Society. All these pillars are based on microbes in one or the other way. To start he stated that increasing AMR and poor hygiene are burden on economy as they result in high medical expenses and poor man power output. The environment is under very high impact of the microbes as they are the last trophic level returning back all the nutrients to their respective biogeochemical cycles and that's the reason, they are used for waste management and obtaining clean energy. These are very important for UN's SDG's.

Lastly, he emphasized the importance of Microbiology literacy among the society as a whole as it is going to help in attaining all other goals. If people know importance of microbes, difference between good and bad microbes then they can act better. An informed citizen is an asset to the country, a boon to the environment and blessing to the economy.

Dr. Jasvinder Kaur, Department of Zoology, Gargi College, University of Delhi, Delhi, INDIANew Delhi,

INDIA Session Coordinators: Dr. Kiran Bala (Deshbandhu College, DU)

Student Coordinators: Sahil Khurana & Shashikant (B. Sc Life Sciences, Sem V, DDUC)

Prof. Sukayana Lal was invited for giving the closing remarks to the participants and conclude the event with thanks. She paid thanks and highlighted how the participants were enlightened by the motivating and informative talks of dignitaries who spared their valuable time in this programme entitled ‘Microsphere’. She narrated how we all are living in the Megasphere where different types of microbes, plants and animals are interacting for their survival. She also said that microbes have important role in biodegradation, bio-stimulation, cleaning water bodies & maintaining good health. Microbes have benefitted health care system by providing antibiotics, vaccines etc. which are either the derivatives of the metabolic cycles of microbes or are the attenuated microbes. Earlier, it was emphasised to protect plants and animals but now in this pandemic period, which is caused by deadly SARS -Cov-2 or Corona virus, has made us realise that how important these microbes are?

Recently, as we know that corona pandemic has caused havoc the world over and problem still continues. This has further brought Microbiology in the forefront and also increased our responsibility to take up Microbiology literacy mission on war footing. This outreach program was one such step in this direction. This program acquires more significance because 17 September 2021 is celebrated as International Microorganism day. She congratulated all the organizers to put up this well structured programme in place in a short time and requested them to continue this Microbial literacy mission in near future to help mankind.

Thereafter, Dr. Charu Dogra (Associate Professor, Ramjas College, University of Delhi) was invited to officially conclude the event.

Following this, Dr. Jasvinder Kaur (Assistant Professor, Gargi College, University of Delhi) finally ended the program with a brief summary of all the sessions held and the announcement of quiz winners. She started with the famous quote of Confucius “Tell me and I forget, Teach me and I may remember involve me and I learn” and highlighted the essence of effective dissemination of knowledge i.e. emphasizing on inclusion of activity-based learning and principality apply what one has learnt to solve real-world problems. She emphasized how microorganisms are already ubiquitously integrated and what is needed to be integrated is the microbial awareness, literacy and utilization in our lives. Be it in curriculum, teaching methodologies, lifestyle or career. On international Microorganism Day 2021, Microsphere 2021 organized under the umbrella of INSCR has just tried to embark in that direction. Microorganisms are no longer just a bio resource for laboratory research but increasingly becoming more and more centre of almost everything - can we forget how a single virus has changed the face of the world. The program witnessed this by exploring the role of microorganisms as tiny contractors in lecture by Dr. Ashwin Kumar or significant roles they play in attaining various Sustainable Development Goals delivered by Dr Utkarsh Sood. Microorganism research has also opened up many avenues for setting up or working in science-based companies as emphatically outlined by Dr. Amjad. Requirement is the identification of a role of commercial importance. Practical approach to learning was exemplified by very well presented hands-on activity by the students which must have ignited the spark to learn microbiology as well as brought to the forefront how easily and with minimal, readily available things, one can witness the fascinating aspects of science. Through session on careers in microbiology, Dr. Gauri and Dr. Roshan tried to remove cobwebs, clear blurry vision and laid open various paths. She assured the participants would have ticked the brain cells with a dash of microbial knowledge and understanding. Through a plethora of in-house activities and outreach programs, under the able guidance of exemplary visionary Prof. Rup Lal the team aims to ‘Make the invisible - VISIBLE’ by tweaking the teaching - learning process of microbiology. She finally thanked everyone for being a part of this enriching experience.

91. Workshop on "Initiating Virtual labs @ ANDC"

Resource Persons: Prateek Sharma (9873266626) and Tanmay Das (9891646324)

Report:

Workshop on "Initiating Virtual labs @ ANDC" was organized on August 24, 2021 in collaboration with IIT Delhi. The workshop was very well attended by faculty and students of ANDC where IIT Delhi agreed to make ANDC as Nodal Center for Virtual Labs. Virtual lab (V-lab) was set up at ANDC to provide remote access of various labs to the undergraduate science students through internet under the aegis of DBT-STAR scheme. The V-Lab@ANDC is being coordinated by Prof. Seema Makhija, Dr. Sumit Sahni and Dr. Vineet Kumar Singh. Acharya Narendra Dev College is the first college in the University of Delhi to start V-Lab at its campus.

Acharya Narendra Dev College conceptualized the idea of Virtual lab (V-Lab) to provide remote access of various labs to the undergraduate science students through the internet, and thus became the first college in the University of Delhi to start V-Lab at its campus. Virtual lab allows the student to understand, learn and perform the practical on their own remotely with a click of the mouse. It provides a complete Learning Management System (LMS) where students can avail the various learning, including additional web-resources, video-lectures, animated demonstrations and self-evaluation. Web enabled experiments have been designed for remote operation and viewing so as to enthuse the curiosity and innovation into students. This would help them in learning basic and advanced concepts through remote experimentation.

The course structure of various labs and experiments available on V-Lab@ANDC is futuristic, following a four quadrant model for e-content, and is developed considering the National Education Policy (NEP)-2020. V-Lab@ANDC website is created and maintained by our own students for four domains i.e. Biological Science, Chemical Science, Electronics and Physical Science which include seven departments i.e. Biomedical Science, Botany, Chemistry, Computer Science, Electronics, Physics and Zoology.

Although the V-Lab@ANDC was initiated to tackle the COVID related problems in teaching and learning process but is not confined to it. Students now can perform their experiments 24 X 7, on even sophisticated and expensive instruments, multiple times and at their ease without wasting the resources and can even generate the measured data for at least a few experiments.

Through V-Lab@ANDC we are proving the ideology of our college ‘Preparing for the future’ by exploring and innovating ‘Beyond the classroom’ or rather ‘Beyond the Practical Lab’. The lab is developed under four domains:

Biological Science: Developed by the Department of Biomedical Science, Botany and Zoology

Chemistry: Developed by the Department of Chemistry

Computer Science: Developed by the Department of Computer Science

Physical Science: Developed by the Department of Electronics and Physics

93. Environmental Hazards of e-waste and Plastic waste

Report:

Webinar on Environmental Hazards of e-waste and Plastic waste was organized by Department of Biomedical Science, Botany and Zoology. The talk was held on July 31, 2021 in online mode by Mr Jai Kumar Gaurav Senior Advisor climate change and circular economy, GIZ india. He explained to the gathering about pollution created by the electronic devises and plastic material.

Jai Gaurav delivered a talk on the environmental hazards of e-waste and plastic waste. He emphasized that the increase in electronic devices and plastic products has led to a significant increase in waste production, which has caused severe environmental issues globally.

Firstly, Jai Gaurav spoke about e-waste, which refers to discarded electronic devices such as computers, mobile phones, televisions, and other electrical appliances. He pointed out that the improper disposal of e-waste can lead to severe environmental problems, such as pollution of the soil, air, and water. He explained that e-waste often contains toxic substances such as lead, mercury, and cadmium, which can leach into the environment and cause contamination. Furthermore, he emphasized that the e-waste recycling process can also be hazardous, as it involves burning or shredding the electronic devices, which can release harmful chemicals into the environment.

Next, Jai Gaurav discussed plastic waste, which he argued is one of the most significant environmental problems globally. He highlighted that plastic waste takes hundreds of years to decompose and often ends up in landfills or the ocean, where it poses a severe threat to wildlife. He pointed out that plastic waste can break down into tiny particles known as microplastics, which can enter the food chain and have adverse effects on human health.

Jai Gaurav also discussed the need for individuals and organizations to take action to address these environmental hazards. He suggested that people could reduce their e-waste and plastic waste by using products for a longer time, repairing them instead of buying new ones, and properly disposing of them when they are no longer needed. He also highlighted the importance of recycling and emphasized the need for governments to implement policies that encourage the proper disposal of e-waste and plastic waste.

Overall, Jai Gaurav's talk highlighted the severe environmental hazards of e-waste and plastic waste and stressed the need for individuals, organizations, and governments to take action to address these problems.

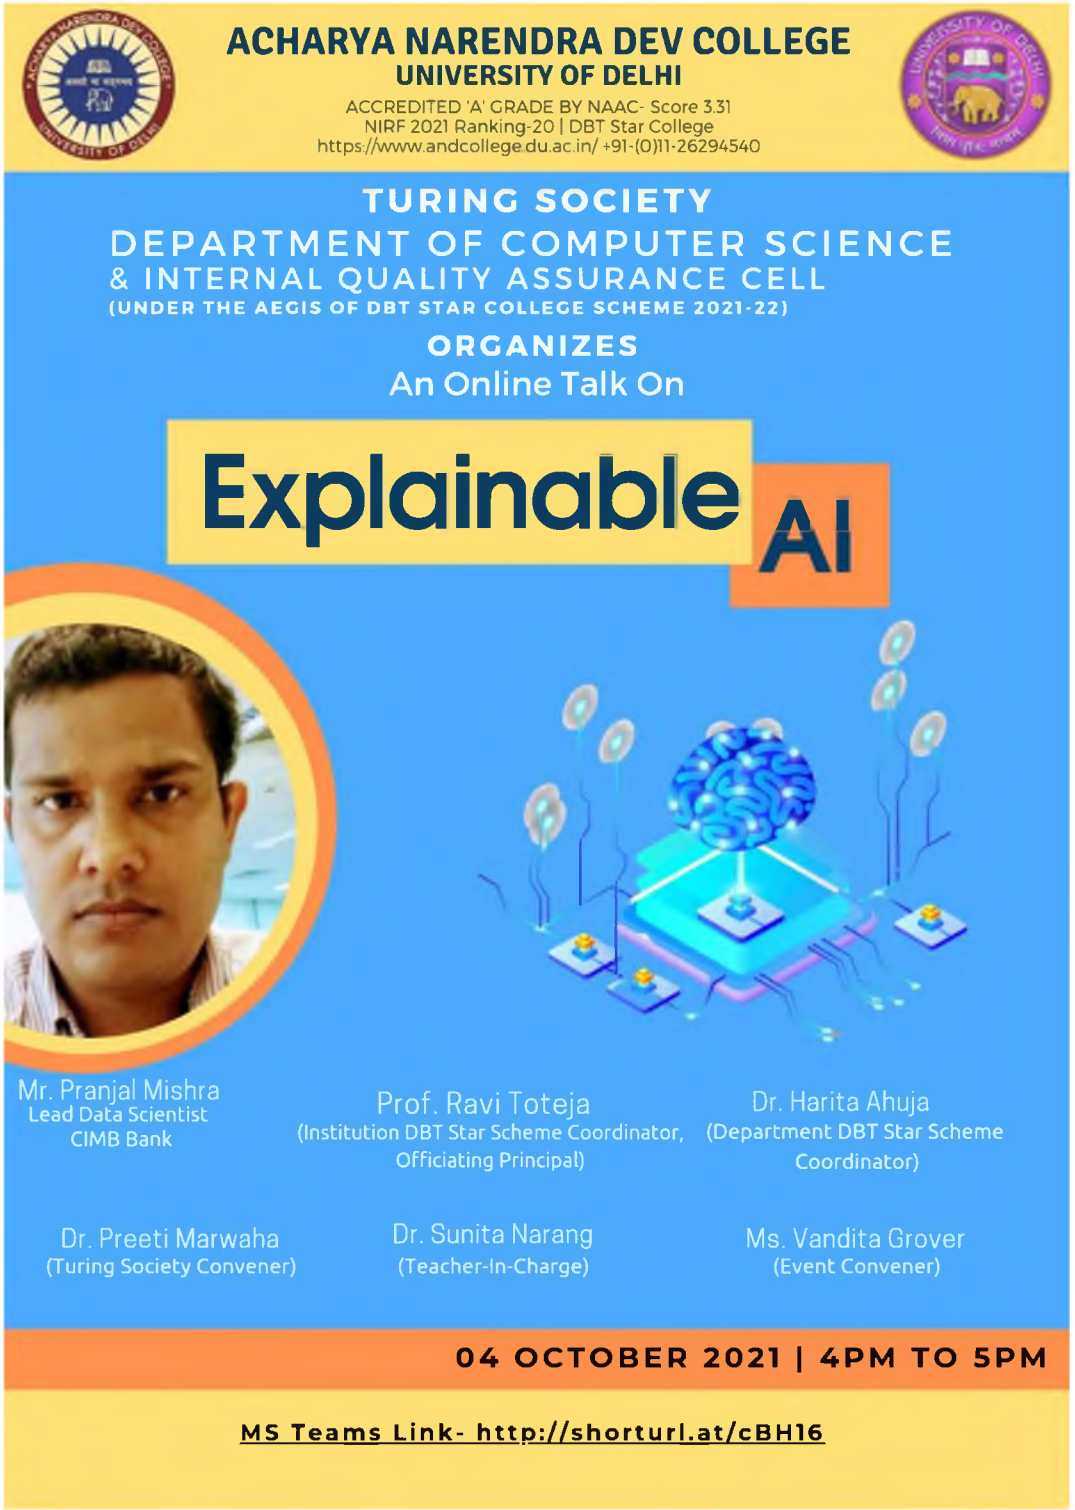
95. Explainable AI



REPORT

Turing Society of Department of Computer Science of the Acharya Narendra Dev College under the aegis of DBT Star College Scheme 2021-22 organized an online technical talk on the topic "Explainable AI" on 4th October 2021. The Talk was convened by Ms. Vandita Grover along with Co-Convener Ms. Priyanka Sharma. It was attended by the students of the Computer Science Department. We had Mr. Pranjal Mishra as our eminent guest speaker. He is working as a Lead Data Scientist at CIMB Bank, a leading global bank. Mr. Mishra is also a Data Science Trainer since 2019.

The session started with the encouraging words of the respected Officiating Principal; Prof Ravi Toteja followed by a welcome note by the convener.

The session started with a discussion on what is AI and how various sub-fields like Machine Learning, Neural Networks, Deep Networks etc. use different features and determine mathematical combinations to enable computers (machines) to make intelligent decisions. The speaker highlighted the present challenges in AI - performance and interpretability. And stressed on the need to make AI more explainable in order to justify why a decision was made. For instance, which feature had the most impact, the order of importance of different features while predicting the results.

As machines are trained on various examples, some inherent bias may get introduced based on the kind of examples it is trained on, thus explain-ability is crucial to ensure transparency, build trust for the design of interpretable AI. The students were also introduced to to Root-Cause analysis, What-if tools and LIME for better understanding of interpretable AI.

Towards the end,Dr. Harita Ahuja, the Department DBT-Star Scheme coordinator delivered a vote of thanks to Speaker and concluded the session. The participants were interactive and the talk was successful in piquing interest in the field of Explainable AI.

Report:

In January 2016, the 2030 Goals for Sustainable Development were set by the United Nations to achieve environmental, social and economic development through green methods and clean production technologies. The most important aim of these goals is the fulfilment of basic human needs and wants, as the essential human needs such as food, clothing, shelter and health care are still not available to most people, despite the rapid growth in the world economy. The increase in waste products and depleting natural resources have turned human attention towards efficient green and clear production technologies. The Sustainable Development Goals aim to provide these basic needs for all, through the intelligent use of sustainable science. In this perspective, microorganisms, which are vital for sustaining life on Earth, can play a major role. Keeping in view about the role of microbes in sustainable development, INSCR organized 6th International Conference over the virtual platform. Prof. P. C. Joshi, former Vice Chancellor, University of Delhi and Prof. Balram Pani, Dean of Colleges, University HOD, Zoology, Magadh University, Dr Sanjay Kumar, Director CISR Palampur Himachal Pradesh, Dr Umesh Rai, former Head of Zoology Department, University of Delhi, besides the principals of co-organizing colleges.

The event hosted 30 International and 40 National speakers of international repute. A few of them are: Edward DeLong, University of Hawaii, Honolulu; Prof. Jizhang Zhou, University of Oklahoma, USA; Prof. Kenneth Timis, Germany; Hilary Lapin Schott and Prof. Jack Gilbert, University of California; Daniel Macdonald, University of California; Hock Midt, Netherlands; Hans, Germany. H Reknow, New Zealand's Stephen Craig Carey, America's NASA Program Scientist Mitch Schalte, South Korea's Vipin C Kalia of Konkuk University, Korea's Ganesh de Sartale, Poland's Agnizeka Dybala Defratka, Uruguay's PavloScavone, Prof. Jyoti Prakash Tamang of Sikkim University, INDIA, Prof. Rama Chaudhary of AIIMS Delhi, INDIA. Anushree Malik of IIT Delhi, INDIA and others who enlighten about the role of microbes in sustainable development.

Two Pre conference workshops namely, Art of scientific writing and communication, and Hands on to computational Biology, for (Meta)genomic analysis were also organized for Undergraduate, Postgraduate students and research scholars from November 14-15, 2021. An online Agar Competition was also organized that show active participation from all over the country.

Themes covered in this conference were:

a. Host Microbiota Interactions
b. Clinical Microbiology and Infectious Diseases
c. Microbes for Sustainable Agriculture
d. Translational and Industrial Microbiology
e. Microbial Ecology and Biotechnology
f. Microbiology of Extreme Environments
g. Empowering academics through Innovative Research

During the conference, undergraduate, postgraduate students, research scholars and faculty members presented their research papers on host microbiota interactions, clinical microbiology and infectious disease, microbes for sustainable agriculture, microbial ecology and biotechnology, microbiology of extreme environment and translation and industrial microbiology under the main themes Microbes in Sustainable Development.

The Conference was a great success with a record total of more than 500 attendees and 138 registered participants. During the conference three parallel sessions were conducted to accommodate 80 poster and more than 70 oral presentations by students and faculty across the globe. The conference concluded with a valedictory session, in which the participants were acknowledged, winners for poster and oral presentations were announced, winners for Agar Art competition were announced and INSCR Journal was released. माइक्रोबायोलॉजी लिटरेसी इनिशिएटिव अर्थात माइक्रोबायोलॉजी फॉर साइंस एंड सोसाइटी का उद्देश्य समाज में, हमारे दैनिक जीवन को प्रभावित करने वाली सूक्ष्मजीवविज्ञानी प्रक्रियाओं की गहन समझ और स्थिरता के विभिन्न पहलुओं के लिए उनके महत्व को स्थापित करना है। इसके तहत रोग और स्वास्थ्य, पोषण और खाद्य उत्पादन में सूक्ष्म जीव विज्ञान शामिल है। माइक्रोबायोलॉजी फॉर साइंस एंड सोसाइटी सेक्शन के तहत जर्मनी टेक्नीकल विवि के प्रो केनेथ टिम्मिस ने माइक्रोब्स इन सस्टेनेबल डेवलपमेंट पर चार दिवसीय छठा इंटरनेशनल ई-कांफ्रेंस के दौरान अंतिम सत्र में उक्त बातें कही। इंडियन नेटवर्क फॉर स्वॉयल कंटेमिनेशन रिसर्च दिल्ली ने इसका आयोजन किया व पीजी डिपार्टमेंट ऑफ जूलोजी मगध विवि, दिल्ली विवि सहित अन्य संस्थान सह आयोजक हैं। उन्होंने कहा कि समुद्री पारिस्थितिकी तंत्र और पर्यावरण परिवर्तन और यहां तक कि कैसे रोगाणु हमारे मूड और व्यवहार को नियंत्रित करते हैं, इन विषयों को एक एकीकृत, परस्पर और अनुभवात्मक तरीके में पढ़ाकर दक्षताओं को स्थापित करना है। इस तरह सामान्य जानकारी के महत्वपूर्ण मूल्यांकन के लिए एक सामाजिक क्षमता का निर्माण करना है। यह स्थापना, कर्षण लाभ और भ्रामक सूचनाओं के प्रभाव का प्रतिकार करने के प्रयासों का भी समर्थन करेगा जो हमारे दैनिक जीवन में तेजी से व्यापक होता जा रहा है। इंगलैंड के एसेक्स विवि के प्रो टेरी मैक्जेन्टी, भारत के प्रो रूपलाल सहित अन्य ने शोधपत्र पढ़ा।

पृथ्वी के सब-सरफेस में हजारों साल जीवित रह सकते हैं माइक्रोब्स

क्लिनिकल माइक्रोबायोलॉजी सेशन के तहत प्रो करेन लॉयड ने अननीन माइक्रोब्स इन अर्थ सब-सरफेस शोध पत्र में कहा कि सतह के पास, जीवित जीव कार्बनिक पदार्थों का उपभोग करते हैं और ऑक्सीजन का सांस लेते हैं। नीचे की ओर, ये उपलब्ध नहीं हैं, इसलिए वे हाइड्रोजन (विभिन्न रासायनिक प्रक्रियाओं द्वारा चट्टानों से मुक्त), मीथेन, सल्फर यौगिकों और अमोनियम जैसे इलेक्ट्रॉन दाताओं का उपयोग करते हैं। वे नाइट्रेट और नाइट्राइट, मैंगनीज और आयरन ऑक्साइड, ऑक्सीकृत सल्फर यौगिकों और कार्बन डाइऑक्साइड जैसे इलेक्ट्रॉन का सांस लेते हैं। अधिक गहराई पर बहुत कम ऊर्जा होती है, इसलिए चयापचय सतह की तुलना में दस लाख गुना धीमा होता है। कोशिकाएं विभाजित होने से पहले हजारों वर्षों तक जीवित रह सकती हैं और उनकी आयु की कोई ज्ञात सीमा नहीं है।

स्कूल जीवन से ही अध्ययन जरूरी

प्रो केनेथ टिम्मिस ने कहा कि इस पहल का उद्देश्य स्कूलों में सूक्ष्म जीव विज्ञान के शिक्षण के लिए नई सामग्री प्रदान करना है, ताकि एक ऐसे समाज का निर्माण किया जा सके, जो सूक्ष्म जीव विज्ञान के प्रमुख पहलुओं में साक्षर हो, जो ज्ञान-आधारित रोजमर्रा के पारिवारिक निर्णयों के साथ-साथ क्षेत्रीय, राष्ट्रीय और वैश्विक नीतिगत निर्णयों को प्रभावित करने वाले हों। इसका उद्देश्य माइक्रोबायोलॉजिस्ट बनाना नहीं है, बल्कि बच्चों की कल्पना को पकड़ने के लिए, बाल-केंद्रित और प्रासंगिक विषयों जैसे भोजन, जानवरों, छुट्टियों आदि से निपटने के लिए जानकारी देना है।

कांफ्रेंस के तीसरे दिन माइक्रोबायोलॉजी इन एक्सट्रीम एनवायरमेंट सेक्शन के तहतवाइकाटो विश्वविद्यालय, न्यूजीलैंड के डॉ. क्रेग कैरी ने इस चरमपंथी वातावरण में माइक्रोबायोटा और माइक्रोबियल पारिस्थितिकी को उजागर करने के लिए अंटार्कटिक क्षेत्र में किए गए शोधों की जानकारी दी। डॉ. हौके स्मिड्ट ने हैलोजन साइकलिंग के चालकों में गहरी अंतर्दृष्टि प्राप्त करने के लिए प्रदूषित और प्रदूषित वातावरण में अन्वेषण के बारे में बात की।

under the aegis of IQAC & DBT STAR College Scheme

About the Conference

UN mandated "Decade of Action" has already begun from the year 2020 with an aim to deliver the Sustainable Development Goals by 2030. This decade long endeavour is assigned to promote the shared vision of nations and proffer multipronged accelerated responses to one of the world's most serious challenges – reversing climate change. The main focus of the conference is to generate interest amongst all to concentrate on the burning issue of environmental mitigation through proactive uptake of sustainable approaches. It is in line with the global scenario wherein the latest developments occurring in the field of environmental monitoring & assessment have generated intense research in all branches of science (Biological, Chemical and Physical). The field of contemporary environmental issues demand affirmative action in fields including but not limited to biodiversity conservation/reclamation and environmental toxicology. Creation of sustainable cities through strict laws and policies for environmental protection while assessing environment status via GIS mapping and remote sensing comprise the basic step forward. Pioneering ideas of adoption of environmental economics and eco-preneurship constitute another important phase. Worldwide scientific findings necessitate that there is an urgent need to ignite young minds to think out-of-the-box and in an innovative manner to help stoke interest in environmental sensitization. The International e-Conference on Mitigating Contemporary Environmental Issues by sustainable approaches envisions to make available a platform for free exchange of ideas for the same.

Mitigating Contemporary Environmental Issues by Sustainable Approaches

Acharya Narendra Dev College shows the way

Dr. Ravi Chaturvedi

Environmental sustainability covers a wide range of issues starting from a specific location to a global situation. Global issues comprise concerns about GHG mitigation, climate change, and renewable energy, while the location-specific issues are soil erosion, water management, soil quality, and air and water pollution.

Refittingly, giving priority to environmental issues, Acharya Narendra Dev College of University of Delhi while celebrating the Science Week organised an International E-Conference on Mitigating Contemporary Environmental Issues by Sustainable Approaches recently. Kudos to dynamic Principal Dr. Ravi Toteja, visionary teacher Dr. Seema Makhija, faculty members and students for their initiative and efforts on a burning issue confronting the mankind at the moment.

It will be pertinent to point out that known as prima donna of education in The University of Delhi, Acharya Narendra Dev College accredited 'A' Grade by NAAC with a score of 3.31has been awarded Star status by DBT. It is another feather of success in the cap of Principal Prof. Toteja and the faculty members of a centre of knowledge and learning.

In the wake of recently declared "Decade of Action" proclaimed by the UN, the main focus of the conference was on the pressing environmental concerns and the urgent need to adopt sustainable approaches worldwide to protect the habitat. The significance of a burning topic of the conference drew eminent scholars from diverse fields to converge on to college auditorium from Australia, Czech Republic, Slovenia, UK, Uruguay and USA who participated actively in the deliberations of the conference. Adhering to COVID-19 protocols, constraints regarding travel restrictions and social distancing, the conference still turned out to be a benchmark on "Mitigating Contemporary Environmental Issues by Sustainable Approaches".

There were a total 16 keynote speakers from all over the world who shared their innovative knowledge and application methodology with regard to environment in the conference. There were 28 invited speakers from such diverse domains - Professors, Academicians, Environmentalists, Researchers from Environmental related fields, Scientists involved in Mitigation of Environmental issues and even Legal Practitioners.

Prof. Gaytha A Langlois, a doyen in crafting municipal and statewide environmental policies, Department of Environmental Policy, Byrant University, Rhode Island, USA, was plenary speaker who graced the inaugural deliberations. She focused on the crises of misalignment of policy goals and strategies of navigating environmental challenges in talk entitled, "Syzygy or Sisyphus: The Future of Environmental Policy Making".

This E- conference was unique in dealing with diverse themes while the scope of the conference covered important areas extensively - ranging from Environmental Assessment, Environmental Mitigation by Physical, chemical and biological approaches, Biodiversity conservation and reclamation, Laws and Policies for Environmental protection, GIS mapping and remote sensing for environmental assessment, Environmental toxicology, Sustainable cities and communities, Environmental economics and eco-entrepreneurship, Igniting young minds for environmental sensitization, Data analytics in environment, Green Finance and Environment & Public Health.

Apart from the talks by keynote speakers and participants the conference also focused on pragmatic and empirical approach to the theoretical discussions. There were more than 100 oral presentations by undergraduates, postgraduates, research scholars and faculty members from Kashmir to Kerala.

An outreach program for school students, "ECO-VILLE" was another important component of the E- conference where avant-garde research projects, video presentations, environmental quiz and paper presentations were invited. The major initiative of this outreach program was aimed at introducing young minds to innovative thinking and open pathways for research to the aspiring environmentalist. It was designed to encourage and involve students by funding avant-garde projects, awarding exciting prizes for quir winners, best presenters while giving certificates to all. Another highlight of the conference was the inauguration of Virtual lab presided over by Dr. Garima Gupta, Scientist E, Department of Biotechnology, Govt. of India.

Prof. Ravi Toteja, Principal of the College on behalf of the entire faculty and students, had sense of pride at the successful culmination of an unique event, the maiden venture of its kind in the annals of the colleges of the University of Delhi. The event left a feeling of buoyancy in Prof. Toteja who felt that it will play a pivotal role in inspiring further synergy on a global scale, which is the only feasible way to manage and sustain our environment. The ambitious feat of planning and executing this week-long international conference was possible because of the accommodating nature of all involved. Right in sync with the driving force required in bringing substantial change in approach towards environment, everyone participated in the conference with a sense of awe towards a larger cause of the health of our Mother Nature!

The recommendations of the conference were aimed at environmental sustainability, provision of clean drinking water and the pointer that road towards progress are the vision of tomorrow. Successful environmental sustainability and global water initiative are in the process of new scientific vision. Provision of clean drinking water stands as a major prerogative of successful sustainable development in developed and developing countries. Environmental pollution control, industrial wastewater treatment, and veritably drinking water treatment in today's world are at a disastrous state with devastating end. History of science needs to be restructured at this crucial juncture. Environmental sustainability is in a disastrous state of immense distress. History of human civilization is at veritable crossroads. Mach vision, as well as a scientist's progress is in the process of re-envisioning with every step of progress. Dr. Ravi Toteja, Dr. Seema Makhija and the entire team are to be commended for their laudable efforts for organising the event with perfection and precision.

LIVE CAREER SESSION BY AKARSH DEV - SALES MANAGER AT ZOMATO AND AAYUSH GUPTA - STUDENT AT IIM AHMEDABAD

The Placement Cell

Placement Cell Report of 2020-21 :

The College has an active Career Counseling and Placement Cell that tries to understand the career objectives of the students, keeping in mind the current trends in the corporate world. The scope of the cell extends from coordinating job hiring activities to organizing interactive career counseling seminars.

A live career session was also organized by Internshala this year. The eminent speakers for this session were Akarsh Dev - Sales Manager at Zomato and Aayush Gupta - student at IIM Ahmedabad (2019-21).

This year final year students faced major challenges in their placement prospective because of the current pandemic. But on the brighter side, despite the covid-induced slump, few companies continued their recruitment drive. The students opted for online internships as well. The companies visiting ANDC campus this year were Wipro, Royal Bank of Scotland, CVent, Purple Tutor and Leadsquared. This year 16 students were selected via campus interviews so far.

WOMEN STUDENTS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE – SASHAKT

In India, gender-based discrimination has been a deep-rooted social malice since long. Addressing this sensitive issue has been a long drawn battle against powerful structural and male-biased forces of the society. The constitution not only grants equality to women but also empowers the state to adopt measures of positive discrimination in favour of women. Consequently, women's empowerment is one of the key factors in determining the success of development in the status and position of women in the society. The college took an initiative on women's empowerment, realizing that it was all about making focussed efforts towards not just physical or psychological but complete personality development involving medical counselling, sex education and laws on women's rights, etc. To fulfil this objective, a society named 'Sashakt' was set up in 2003 with an aim towards the welfare and development of the female students and faculty members by providing equal rights and opportunities; and a platform for growth, ensuring their progress.

Minutes of the Proctoral Committee 11 April, 2022

Sub: Emergent Meeting of proctoral committee to summarise the miscreant behaviour during college fest.

In evening, a group of 16 students from Ramanujan College, University of Delhi forcefully tried to enter inside the college during the time of college festival. They were asked to show their ID cards, instead few of the students misbehaved and verbally abused the proctoral committee faculty members. To avoid any mishap due to overcrowding, they were asked to leave the college premise and only 2 of the students representing their group were given permission to collect their props that they left behind in the fashion show competition (held in morning). Instead, they all left the college premise & filed a police complaint against proctoral committee faculty members.

This is a routine action taken by the proctoral comittee to maintain law and order within the college. However, the misbehaviour and filing of police complaint against faculty members was unprecedented. The comittee is hereby informing you about the sequence of events that took place this evening and recommend you to take appropriate action on this matter.

You are liable to disciplinary action in accordance with the bye-laws, regulations and guidelines in force at the time of the breach. All disciplinary proceedings, shall be conducted in accordance with the bye-laws and Complaints and Disciplinary Regulations in force at the time of such proceedings.

4. You are not permitted during the exam to possess (whether at your desk or on or about your person), use or attempt to use any notes, books or other written materials (whether in electronic form or otherwise) except those expressly permitted within the Exam Guidelines. These are known as 'unauthorised materials'.

5(a) You are not permitted to use a dictionary or an electronic device or translator of any kind or have on or at your desk a calculator which can store or display text. You are also not permitted to use in your examination room an electronic communication device, camera, smart watch, any other item with smart technology functionality or mobile phones (unless the exam is being conducted remotely in which case it must only be used in accordance with ACCA's Exam Guidelines). These are regarded as 'unauthorised items' and are taken into the examination room at the candidate's own risk.

5(b) Such 'unauthorised items' must not be worn, or be placed on your desk, in pockets of clothing, in your bag or personal belongings, or be kept anywhere else on or about your person or desk. If you bring 'unauthorised items' to the exam you must declare them to the exam personnel prior to the start of the exam. They are also empowered to discontinue your exam if you are suspected of irregular or improper conduct and to remove or exclude you from the exam room.

9. If you breach exam regulation 2 and/or fail to disclose to the supervisor(s), invigilator(s), remote invigilator(s) or proctor(s), any 'unauthorised materials' or 'unauthorised items' which they reasonably suspect you have in your possession, it will be assumed the 'unauthorised materials' are relevant to the syllabus being examined and that you intended to use the 'unauthorised materials' and/or 'unauthorised items' to gain an unfair advantage.

Candidates must not whisper or speak out loud during the exam or communicate or attempt to communicate with any person, or allow any third party to communicate with them, other than the exam supervisor(s), invigilator(s) or remote invigilator(s) or proctor(s). This includes from the time that you log into the remote proctoring platform until 5 minutes after the time that you submit your exam, or your exam is terminated (whether by you or anyone or anything else).

17. For Session Exams only you must not leave the room where you are sitting your exam early, i.e. before the time limit allocated for the exam expires, and you must remain under invigilator/proctor supervision for the entire exam duration. For the avoidance of doubt, this also applies before the exam has started if any question papers have been distributed (applicable to paper-based exams only) or if you have been seated at your designated computer workstation (applicable to computer-based exams only) or after you have verified your identity and room set up and successfully checked in for the exam (applicable for Remote Invigilated Exams only). If ACCA suspects, or has cause to believe, that there has been irregular conduct in connection with your examination (identified during the examination itself or identified by ACCA after the examination), it reserves the right to nullify your exam attempt including to forfeit your fees, and/or withhold your examination results and/or suspend your ability to sit further ACCA examinations until the conclusion of any disciplinary process.

22. ACCA reserves the right to change these Exam Regulations and Exam Guidelines at any time without prior notice in accordance with its bye-laws. In the event that any changes are made, the revised Exam Regulations and Exam Guidelines shall be posted on ACCA's website immediately. Please check the latest information on www.accaglobal.com to inform yourself of any changes.

The details of eligibility and process of application/ allotment will be available on the link http://www.iitd.ac.in/content/hostel-management. Owing to the evolving situation due to the COVID-19 outbreak, it has been decided that the Semester in the Academic Year 2020-2021 will be conducted in online mode. Plan for online teaching will be revisited in December 2020 and may be revised depending on the prevailing COVID-19 situation in the country at that time. You are requested to keep track of the IIT Delhi website for updates on this issue. Communication via email will also be to you from IIT Delhi.

Online registration will be from 18th August to 17th September, 2020. During this, the documents (certificates, forms etc.) will have to be submitted on an online portal. Please keep checking details on Institute Website and the Academic calendar on https://home.iitd.ac.in/academic-calendar.php).

In view of the prevailing COVID-19 situation, IIT Delhi would follow regulations and guidelines laid out by the Central and State Government, with an intention of maintaining safety of all concerned in hostels, classrooms, laboratories, etc. Guidelines for this may be released by Institute Administration from time-to-time, and whatever is relevant to incoming students will be intimated to you.

IIT Delhi expects all incoming students to follow these norms strictly, and adhere to the obligations and safety protocols. You are also requested to check the Institute website periodically for updates on this.

Please note that the eligibility requirements (ER) and the minimum educational qualifications (MEQ) to take admission in the M.Sc. Programme in Chemistry at IIT DELHI are the following:

* "Candidate belonging to the General/OBC Categories who has secured less than 35% marks obtained by the topper of the concerned category, shall be considered for admission only in the Colleges admitted to the privilege of the Banaras Hinu University ".

Please note that for consideration of admission, you must be present in person on the above date and time for counselling alongwith required documents. Provision for online (remote) counseling:

Keeping in view the pandemic and limitation of traveling facilities, candidates distantly located may participate in the counseling process remotely (in absentia). In case you prefer to attend the counseling process remotely, login on the portal and fillup the (i) Preference Entry Form completely, (ii) fillup the percentage of marks of qualifying examination and (iii) upload all prescribed documents on the portal within the deadline fixed (given on your portal after login) for the purpose. The Admission Committees will declare list of candidates who are offered admission provisionally during 6.00 - 8.00 P.M. on each day of counseling. Candidates who are offered admission will be required pay the fee online by 6.00 p.m. of the next day. Therefore, candidates are advised to be watchful and should visit the portal regularly for important updates.

The candidates who opt for remote counseling may note that the documents uploaded by them on the portal would be verified from the original when the situation becomes normal and they arrive in Campus for Teaching/Learning in Face to Face mode. If on verification, it is found that the documents uploaded are not as per originals, their provisional admission to the course would be cancelled forthwith. An undertaking in this regard (Annexure-10) would have to be furnished by the candidate and uploaded on portal.

NOTE :

1. Candidates who decide to attend for counseling, in person, are not required to upload the documents on the portal. They can only fillup the preference entry form available after login on the portal.
2. Candidates who decide to attend counseling online (remotely) are required to fillup the preference entry form and upload all required documents on the portal [available after login on the portal].
3. In case a candidate fails to (i) upload the required/relevant documents within the deadline [required for remote counseling] or (ii) attend the counselling in person as per given schedule along with all the original documents to complete the necessary formalities by 4.00 p.m. of the counseling date, claim for consideration or provisional admission shall stand forfeited.
4. Please bear in mind that the number of eligible candidates called for Counselling is much larger than the seats available in the course to which you are seeking admission. Therefore, mere receipt of the Call Letter does not entitle you for provisional admission. The admission of the eligible candidates shall be made strictly on the basis of merit index of PET – 2020 against the available seats. No eligible candidate shall advance any claim, whatsoever, for the provisional admission if seats are not vacant at the time of consideration of his/her candidature for admission-counselling.
5. There is a provision to provide opportunity to a candidate who has failed to report for counselling on the day he/she has been called, due to certain unavoidable reasons. At the discretion of the concerned Admission Committee, such candidates may be entertained for counselling provided they come during the Counselling period of the concerned course. In any case, NO applicant after the last date fixed for counselling (of the concerned course) shall be entertained under any circumstances.
6. A candidate who has been called for counselling for the seats on the main campus only, may also attend the Counselling for affiliated Colleges/RGSC (which would be held only after the counselling for main campus is over) with the prior approval of the concerned Admission Committee. In that case, he/she should see the counselling schedule of the affiliated College/RGSC and report the counselling venue at 10.00 a.m. on the 1st day of commencement of Counselling for affiliated colleges/ RGSC.
7. As the admission process is time-bound exercise, it shall be the responsibility of the candidates to visit the Entrance Test/ Counselling Portal of the University (www.bhonline.in) every day during the entire counselling period of the concerned course to remain updated with the information regarding counselling schedule, offer of course allotment, offer of hostel allotment, fee payment deadlines and other important communications. The University will not be responsible for claim of any kind if the candidate fails to visit the portal on daily basis to keep himself/herself updated with the information.

2. List of Essential Documents required at the time of Counselling:

   You must produce the under mentioned documents/certificates in ORIGINAL along with one set of photocopy (self attested) at the time of counselling for provisional admission before the Admission Committee for scrutiny/verification. Failure to produce any of these documents on any ground may disqualify the candidate from the provisional admission.

   1. Mark-Sheets of the QUALIFYING EXAMINATION and all other previous examinations such as High School, Intermediate, Graduation (as the case may be).

      NOTE:

      1. Ordinarily only the original mark-sheet shall be accepted.       2. Candidates who were appearing in their final year/ final semester of the qualifying examination were allowed to appear in the Entrance Test with the condition that they will be required to produce the original marksheet of the qualifying examination at the time of counselling for getting admission. However, if such candidates are called for counselling towards provisional admission in a course, but they are not able to produce the mark sheet of the qualifying examination(s) (main or supplementary or revaluation) with minimum eligibility requirements at the time of counselling may also be allowed to take conditional admission provided:

This will not be applicable for SC/ST/OBC candidates). However, this test/check [para (ii)] would not apply in case where the qualifying examination is of 10+2 standard (Sr. Secondary level) largely required for admission to PG programmes.
         3. If they fail to produce the requisite mark sheet by 31st December 2020 their conditional admission will be treated as cancelled and they will not be entitled for to claim for refund of fee paid for conditional admission.

3. COUNSELLING PROCEDURE

The University will follow Online counselling procedure for admissions to various courses during the academic session 2020-21. The scheduling of different phases of Counselling would be done in the following manner:

1. Single Phase Counselling for all PG programs:

The Counselling for courses covered in PG Counselling would be done in a single stretch (single phase) without declaration of admission list after each day of counselling. After the counselling of all the candidates called (in each category) is over, the admission list(s) would be declared in different rounds for different types of seats. In the first round, admission list for regular fee seats on the main Campus would be declared and filled up. If the seats remain vacant after first round, subsequent rounds of admission lists would be declared till all regular seats on main campus of the concerned course are filled up. Only after regular fee seats are full, admission list(s) for paid seats on the main campus (wherever available) would be declared and filled up. Thereafter, admission list(s) for regular seats in the affiliated Colleges would be declared and filled up followed by paid seats in affiliated colleges and/or RGSC.

The counselling procedure will involve following steps:

STEP 1: CALL LETTER FOR COUNSELLING

1. i). Single Phase Counselling for the Courses covered under PG Counselling (All PG Programs):

   The candidates can download the call Letter in the same manner as they downloaded their admit card for the entrance test. The candidates called for counselling of courses covered under PG Counselling would be issued only one call letter. During counselling, the candidates can exercise their preference of course, course location (main campus, affiliated colleges, RGSC) and seat type (regular or paid) in the single preference entry form available on the student site as well as the admission committee site of the entrance test portal. In these courses, the candidate is required to come only once for counselling during which he/she exercises all options available to him/her.

   During counselling, the candidates can exercise their preference of course and seat type (regular or paid). Therefore, for such courses two preference entry forms (one for regular and paid seats of main campus and other for affiliated college/RGSC) are available on the student site as well as the admission committee site of the entrance test portal.

STEP 2: ONLINE PREFERENCE ENTRY (UPTO THE COUNSELLING DATE)

Every candidate called for counselling for admission to a Course shall be required to fill up an online Preference Entry Form as follows:

1. Click on the Button "Preference Entry" icon on the Candidate' segment of the Entrance Test Portal [www.bhuonline.in] for online preference entry.
2. Give your preference of various Course(s) as per your choice of Honours subject with subject combination given in the Preference Entry Form. However, in certain courses, there may not be any choice and the page will show only one course with prefilled text box.
3. Enter the percentage of marks (upto 02 decimal points) obtained in Qualifying Examination in the box given for the purpose in the online Preference Entry Form.
4. If interested, give your paid seat option. However, paid seats would be allotted to only such candidates, in order of merit, who are present in person on the Paid Seat Counselling Date/Time along with prescribed Paid Seat Fee
5. Save the details entered.
6. If there are more than one preference entry form (one for the main campus and other for the affiliated college/ RGSC), fill up both forms completely in the aforesaid manner.

NOTE:

1. Give your order of preference carefully. No section of the online preference form should be left blank. If any section is left blank, it will be presumed that candidate is not interested in that option. Candidates will get another opportunity of making changes in the entries made in the Online Preference Entry Form on the day of counselling also (prior to verification of documents).
2. In some courses, there may not be any choice of subject/subject combinations. In that case, fill up the percentage of marks and other required fields only.

STEP 3: ACTIVITY ON THE DAY OF COUNSELLING

The call letter contains the reporting date(s), time and the venue of counselling where you are required to report for counselling. Please ensure that you reach the counselling venue on the prescribed date and time. After reaching the counselling venue following steps need to be followed:

1. Reach the counselling venue at the prescribed time/date(s) given in the Call letter. Contact the Counselling Centre/Venue Incharge and mark your attendance by signing the attendance sheet available with the Counselling Centre Incharge.
2. Discuss with the teachers-counsellors available at the Counselling Centre/Venue about the available Honours/Course Combinations, locations and fee structures, availability of hostels, etc. In case any candidate wants to change his/her preference [earlier filled up ONLINE], he/she may be allowed to make changes at this stage. Thereafter, a printout of the duly filled in preference entry form will be provided to the candidate by the concerned admission committee on which the concern candidate have to put his/her signature and then to submit it to the concerned admission committee alongwith other required original documents at the Verification Desk. No change shall be allowed in the Preference Entry Form once signed and confirmed by a Candidate on the Counselling Date. The online admission module will allot seats strictly in order of merit in the entrance test taking into account the order of preference filled up by the candidate and availability of seats in respective course.

6. YOU WILL BE ALLOWED TO LEAVE AT THIS STAGE. YOU MAY FOLLOW THE STEPS MENTIONED BELOW TO CONFIRM YOUR ADMISSION.

STEP 4: DECLARATION OF ADMISSION LIST

PG Counselling:
The concerned Admission Committee would release/ publish the first admission list (for regular seats on main campus) between 06:00 p.m.- 08:00 p.m on the last day of Counselling. Thereafter, successive admission lists would be declared ordinarily after 24 hours of declaration of first admission list for different types of seats in the concerned course in the following order (Regular Seats on Main Campus- Paid Seat on Main Campus-Regular Seats of affiliated colleges- Paid Seats of Affiliated Colleges/RGSC). The candidates offered admission can deposit the prescribed admission fee within the deadline for fee payment given on the course allocation page (which will be ordinarily upto 06:00 pm of the day following the date of declaration of any round of result).

Important Note: As those who have secured their admission after initial rounds of declaration of admission lists the candidature of the candidate may be upgraded e.g. from paid seat to regular seat, from affiliated colleges to main campus, from RGSC to main campus and RGSC to affiliated colleges, etc. or to a place more preferred by them and those in waitlist may receive offer of admission due to dropouts/withdrawal in previous rounds. The candidates are advised to visit the portal every day for updated course allocation status. In case initially waitlisted candidates receive offer in subsequent rounds of declaration of admission lists, they will be required to pay the admission fee within the deadline for fee payment mentioned on the course allocation page.

STEP 5: MODE OF PAYMENT OF ADMISSION FEE:
Following admission fee payment modes will be available:

1. Online payment (through Debit Card/Credit Card/Net banking) through the payment gateway available on the Portal.
2. Cash payment can be made only at the Extension Counters of ICICI/HDFC Bank opened on the BHU Campus through Challan downloaded from the payment page of the candidate's portal.

NOTE:

1. For online payment the candidate must visit Course Allocation page and make the payment through debit/credit card.
2. Any candidate who wants to make payment in cash through the extension counters of ICICI/HDFC Bank opened on the BHU Campus can download challan from their respective Course Allocation page.
3. To secure admission in the course for which the candidate is provisionally offered he/she should pay the prescribed Admission Fee within the deadline for payment of fee as mentioned in the offer of admission (shown on the Course Allocation page). In case he/she is provisionally admitted to a special course of study or on paid seat, he/she shall be required to pay the Special Course/Paid Seat fee (in cash or online) in addition to the regular Fee of the Course.
4. A candidate will be treated as provisionally admitted in the course offered only after the prescribed fee has been paid by him/her. In case they do not make payment of fee through either of the above modes within the prescribed deadline, they will forfeit their claim for admission in the University. On successful payment of prescribed admission fee, the payment ID will appear in the 'Application' page of the candidate's portal as well as in the admitted list available on the admission committee site of the portal.

STEP 6: DOWNLOADING ADMIT CARD:

Candidates can download the Admit Cards from their portals only after the admissions are over in the concerned course or they have locked their allotment after any round of declaration of admission list (please see the Locking Rule given below). The Admit Card will contain the date on which they have to report to the University for attending classes and the documents that they are required to bring.

STEP 7: HOSTEL ALLOTMENT:

Only limited number of hostel seats is available which will be allotted strictly in order of the merit subject to your eligibility for hostel allotment. You will be required to give the requirement of hostel facility in the online preference entry form. Based on your eligibility, the Admission Committee may allot you hostel after admission in the course. You are required to check on your portal (after logging in) regarding hostel allotment status by clicking "HOSTEL ALLOCATION" icon. In case the status shows as "HOSTEL ALOTTED", make payment of Hostel Fee also in the same manner as given for payment of Admission Fee through either of the modes of fee payment given above within the prescribed deadline for payment, else it will be considered that you are not interested in seeking hostel facility and the provisional offer of allotment of hostel will be treated as withdrawn and the seat so spared may be offered to next candidate in the merit.

NOTE: Allotment of hostel for the academic session 2020-21 will be done later after the receipt of the guidelines/SOP for Hostels from the Government of India.

4. ADMISSION UNDER PAID SEATS:
    1. There is a provision of 'Paid Seats' (supernumerary) in some courses, up to a maximum of 15% of total seats. Admission on Paid Seats will be done only after the regular fee seats are full.
    2. Paid seats options may be exercised by the candidates during preference entry or later by presenting themselves on the Paid Seat Counselling date.
    3. All those candidates who are interested in Paid Seats must present themselves in person by 4.00 p.m. on the Paid Seat Counselling Date. Allotment of Paid Seats would be done amongst those candidates, in order of merit, who are present in person on the Paid Seat Counselling Date/Time alongwith prescribed Paid Seat Fee.

5. UPGRADATION AND LOCKING RULE:

Rearrangement in 2nd and/or subsequent Admission List(s): The candidates have to enter their preference of course (where choice is available) in the preference entry form. The module has been developed in a manner to ensure that if the seats fall vacant on expiry of deadline of fee payment (after declaration of any Round of results due to candidates holding higher merit do not take admission etc.), there are chances that the candidate who was initially allotted a course of his/her lower order of preference may get upgraded to a more preferred course as per his/her preference order. Accordingly, based on the preference given by the candidate at the time of counselling, there could be change in course allocation after its initial allotment. Rearrangement process will enable only upward mobility of a candidate in the order of preference filled up by him/her, vacancy being created and his/her merit order provided payment of admission fee has already been done for the initial allotment within the prescribed deadline.

Locking of Course Allotment: At times, if the candidates do not want any change in the Course allotted initially to him/her (say after 1st or subsequent round of result) thereby meaning that they want to be excluded from the aforesaid rearrangement process in the subsequent round. If he/she is satisfied with the course allocation after any round of declaration of admission list, in such cases candidate will immediately email only through the registered email ID of candidate to the Convenor of the concerned Admission Committee to lock his/her course allotment. For this purpose each Admission Committee will create a dedicated email ID. If a candidate asks for lock option in the manner aforesaid, he/she will be excluded from the aforesaid rearrangement exercise in the succeeding rounds.

NOTE:
1. No request for locking the initial allotment of course would be entertained, if the candidate fails to give a formal email request to the concerned admission Committee(s) within the deadline indicated above.
2. The choice of locking a course allotment should be entertained by 02:00 pm on the day succeeding day of course allotment. Locking the course allotment can be done only after admission in that course has been secured by making payment of prescribed fee within the prescribed deadline in the manner given above.
3. It is advised to every candidate to be very clear and careful while filling up their preferences of the subject in Preference Entry Form as after locking the course allotment after submission of duly signed Preference Entry Form to the Convenor of the Admission Committee and subsequently allotted subject combination with Honours subject by the computerized Online Admission Module shall not be changed under any circumstances during their programme period.

WHERE the mind is without fear and the head is held high

Where knowledge is free

Where the world has not been broken up
into fragments

By narrow domestic walls

Where words come out from the depth of truth

Where tireless striving stretches its arms
towards perfection

Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way

Into the dreary desert sand of dead habit

Where the mind is led forward by thee

Into ever-widening thought and action

Into that heaven of freedom, my Father,

let my country awake.

ENCLOSURE 7

HOSTEL NORMS

The accommodation policies at the IIT Gandhinagar hostels reflect the Institute's philosophy and value system, and are directed towards facilitating effective community living. All students are expected to cooperate with the Institute authorities and abide by these policies.

General Norms

The Institute treats its students as responsible adults and therefore expects that students will act in a conscientious and responsible manner. Students are expected to take care of the Institute assets and infrastructure, including those provided for their use. The students are expected to not waste food and adhere to waste management guidelines issued periodically.

Hostel Facilities

Several refrigerators, microwave ovens, and induction heaters have been made available in the hostels and are placed in the pantry area of each of the hostel blocks. The students are expected to use these facilities responsibly, and only at the pantry area. Cooking in the hostel rooms is strictly prohibited. Removal of any hostel equipment (microwaves/induction heaters/bean bags) from the designated areas is not allowed.

A few shops facilitating daily basic needs operate in the hostel area. Students are encouraged to seek bills for every transaction they make (except at the Amul store). The students are not allowed to carry any crockery/cutlery items from the Mess or hostel eateries into their rooms. However, students may use personal utensils to carry eatables to their rooms.

Hygiene

All students are expected to make their rooms available for cleaning at least once every week. The detailed cleaning schedule is shared in advance so that students can plan accordingly. The hostels are fogged regularly to mitigate the mosquito-related health hazards. Students are expected to assist the cleaning personnel during this exercise. Students are encouraged to maintain proper cleanliness in their hostel rooms and the surrounding hostel area.

Use of Electronic/Electric items

Use of electrical appliances other than electric air coolers, electric iron and hair dryers inside the room is prohibited. Use of additional decorative lights inside the room is permitted provided no damage is caused to any part of the room.

Ecosystem

There are several species of plants, birds and animals in the campus. Students are encouraged to protect and preserve the ecosystem and live harmoniously with these other species. Please note that there is a presence of stray dogs inside the campus. Considering that not all members of the community like to interact with them, the Institute Animal Welfare Committee has designated certain petting and feeding areas for dogs. Students must use only these designated zones if they wish to feed and pet the dogs. Feeding and petting dogs in the hostel areas and the academic complex is not allowed in the interest of the larger benefit of the entire community. Sheltering dogs inside hostel rooms is also strictly prohibited.

Use of personal motor vehicles

Possession and use of personal motor vehicles by the students is not permitted. Any student needing to park a personal vehicle for special situations or needs must apply to the Dean (Student Affairs) with full justification.

Smoking in hostel premises

Smoking in the hostel area is strictly prohibited. This includes the hostel buildings and hostel rooms. If a student faces any inconvenience due to other students indulging in smoking in hostel premises, they can report the issue to Welfare/General Secretary and/or the Warden.

Substance Abuse

Consumption, possession, sale, purchase, or distribution of alcohol and other illegal substances is prohibited not just in the hostels, but throughout the entire campus. If a student learns about or faces any inconvenience due to other students indulging in use of alcohol or illegal substances, they can report the issue to Welfare/General Secretary and/or the hostel Warden. Students who have a substance abuse problem are encouraged to seek assistance from the Counseling Services team.

Celebration of Festivals and Birthdays

Students are free to celebrate birthdays and festivals inside the hostel area without causing any inconvenience to the other community members. Students are not allowed to coerce/force anyone to celebrate any festivals, birthdays or other events.

Accommodation during vacations

All the students are required to vacate their rooms during the vacation period unless permitted otherwise by the Warden. All the belongings and luggage are to be kept in the storage room provided by the Institute. The Institute will not be liable for any loss, theft or damage to the stored belongings. If a student is found to have left for vacations with his/her room locked, the lock may be removed at the student's expense and/or the student may be charged rent for the time the room remains locked. If a student is staying in the campus for summer, he/she is required to have the permission of Warden and has to pay the prevailing hostel charges for the period of stay.

Visitors (Anyone who is not a regular IIT Gandhinagar student)

Visitors of the opposite gender are not allowed inside the hostel rooms at any time. They may however visit the hostel common rooms and other common areas. Parents are the only exception to this norm, if their ward's roommates (in case of a shared room) have no objection. There is very limited visitor accommodation in the hostels, which is provided on a "first come first serve" basis. Priority for such accommodation is given to those visiting for Institute-related activities (conferences, seminars, academic programs, interviews, etc.) and urgent medical issues. In all cases, prior permission is needed from the Warden for a visitor's overnight stay. All visitors are required to enter their credentials into the registers kept at the security desk of the corresponding hostel. If required, the security personnel may ask for a valid identity card to be produced by the visitor(s) for the verification of their credentials.

Medical emergencies

A detailed list of recommended actions for any medical emergency is provided at the notice board of each hostel and at various places in the academic complex. First aid boxes are available with the security guards of each of the hostel blocks. Students are requested to use this facility judiciously and effectively. The first aid box is to be returned to the respective security guard after use. Students are requested to inform the hostel Warden, Student Welfare Secretary or any of the members of the Health Committee regarding any chronic medical conditions that may need special attention.

Security and Safety

All residents are encouraged to carry valid identity cards issued to them by the Institute at all times. Security personnel have the right to ask for proof of identity at any time in order to verify your credentials.

Waivers and Adjustments of Hostel, Mess and Laundry fees

In addition to tuition fees, students pay hostel, mess and laundry charges as detailed in the Enclosure on fees. Students who are on authorized leave due to academic or personal reasons may request a fee waiver/exemption ahead of time. All waivers are provided on pro-rata basis. Details of the procedures for applying for waivers and timelines may be obtained from the Student Affairs office.

Complaints

Maintenance requests related to civil work can be made online at maintenance.iitgn.ac.in or manually in the complaint registers kept with the security guards of the corresponding hostels. For any other issues, particularly those related to their welfare in the hostel, students are welcome to contact the hostel Warden(s).

Where The Mind is Without Fear

WHERE the mind is without fear and the head is held high

Where knowledge is free

Where the world has not been broken up into fragments

By narrow domestic walls

Where words come out from the depth of truth

Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection

Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way

Into the dreary desert sand of dead habit

Where the mind is led forward by thee

Into ever-widening thought and action

Into that heaven of freedom, my Father,

let my country awake.

Ecosystem

There are several species of plants, birds and animals in the campus. Students are encouraged to protect and preserve the ecosystem and live harmoniously with these other species. Please note that there is a presence of stray dogs inside the campus. Considering that not all members of the community like to interact with them, the Institute Animal Welfare

Committee has designated certain petting and feeding areas for dogs. Students must use only these designated zones if they wish to feed and pet the dogs. Feeding and petting dogs in the hostel areas and the academic complex is not allowed in the interest of the larger benefit of the entire community. Sheltering dogs inside hostel rooms is also strictly prohibited.

Use of personal motor vehicles

Possession and use of personal motor vehicles by the students is not permitted. Any student needing to park a personal vehicle for special situations or needs must apply to the Dean (Student Affairs) with full justification.

Smoking in hostel premises

Smoking in the hostel area is strictly prohibited. This includes the hostel buildings and hostel rooms. If a student faces any inconvenience due to other students indulging in smoking in hostel premises, they can report the issue to Welfare/General Secretary and/or the Warden.

Substance Abuse

Consumption, possession, sale, purchase, or distribution of alcohol and other illegal substances is prohibited not just in the hostels, but throughout the entire campus. If a student learns about or faces any inconvenience due to other students indulging in use of alcohol or illegal substances, they can report the issue to Welfare/General Secretary and/or the hostel Warden. Students who have a substance abuse problem are encouraged to seek assistance from the Counseling Services team.

Celebration of Festivals and Birthdays

Students are free to celebrate birthdays and festivals inside the hostel area without causing any inconvenience to the other community members. Students are not allowed to coerce/force anyone to celebrate any festivals, birthdays or other events.

Accommodation during vacations

All the students are required to vacate their rooms during the vacation period unless permitted otherwise by the Warden. All the belongings and luggage are to be kept in the storage room provided by the Institute. The Institute will not be liable for any loss, theft or damage to the stored belongings. If a student is found to have left for vacations with his/her room locked, the lock may be removed at the student's expense and/or the student may be charged rent for the time the room remains locked. If a student is staying in the campus for summer, he/she is required to have the permission of Warden and has to pay the prevailing hostel charges for the period of stay.

Visitors (Anyone who is not a regular IIT Gandhinagar student)

Visitors of the opposite gender are not allowed inside the hostel rooms at any time. They may however visit the hostel common rooms and other common areas. Parents are the only exception to this norm, if their ward's roommates (in case of a shared room) have no objection. There is very limited visitor accommodation in the hostels, which is provided on a "first come first serve" basis. Priority for such accommodation is given to those visiting for Institute-related activities (conferences, seminars, academic programs, interviews, etc.) and urgent medical issues. In all cases, prior permission is needed from the Warden for a visitor's overnight stay. All visitors are required to enter their credentials into the registers kept at the security desk of the corresponding hostel. If required, the security personnel may ask for a valid identity card to be produced by the visitor(s) for the verification of their credentials.

Medical emergencies

A detailed list of recommended actions for any medical emergency is provided at the notice board of each hostel and at various places in the academic complex. First aid boxes are available with the security guards of each of the hostel blocks. Students are requested to use this facility judiciously and effectively. The first aid box is to be returned to the respective security guard after use. Students are requested to inform the hostel Warden, Student Welfare Secretary or any of the members of the Health Committee regarding any chronic medical conditions that may need special attention.

Security and Safety

All residents are encouraged to carry valid identity cards issued to them by the Institute at all times. Security personnel have the right to ask for proof of identity at any time in order to verify your credentials.

Waivers and Adjustments of Hostel, Mess and Laundry fees

In addition to tuition fees, students pay hostel, mess and laundry charges as detailed in the Enclosure on fees. Students who are on authorized leave due to academic or personal reasons may request a fee waiver/exemption ahead of time. All waivers are provided on pro-rata basis. Details of the procedures for applying for waivers and timelines may be obtained from the Student Affairs office.

Complaints

Maintenance requests related to civil work can be made online at maintenance.iitgn.ac.in or manually in the complaint registers kept with the security guards of the corresponding hostels. For any other issues, particularly those related to their welfare in the hostel, students are welcome to contact the hostel Warden(s).

Where The Mind is Without Fear

WHERE the mind is without fear and
the head is held high

Where knowledge is free

Where the world has not been broken up
into fragments

By narrow domestic walls

Where words come out from the depth of
truth

Where tireless striving stretches its arms
towards perfection

Where the clear stream of reason has not
lost its way

Into the dreary desert sand of dead habit

Where the mind is led forward by thee

Into ever-widening thought and action

Into that heaven of freedom, my Father,

let my country awake.

Non-Discrimination Policy

Civility and respect for every individual are among the core values of IIT Gandhinagar. The Institute appreciates the dignity of every person and sternly adheres to a policy of non-discrimination. The Institute strictly prohibits discrimination against any member of the IIT Gandhinagar community on the basis of gender, caste, religion, colour, creed, age, sex, nationality and disability.

Sexual harassment, whether intentional or unintentional, is a treated as a serious form of misconduct.

Any student who feels he/she has been sexually harassed is encouraged to approach the Dean (Student Affairs), and also seek assistance of the Counseling Service team at the Institute. Incidents should be reported as soon as possible after they have occurred.

Anti-Ragging Policy

Ragging includes any disorderly conduct, whether by words spoken or written, or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any student, indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities which cause or are likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in a fresher or a junior student and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the psyche of a fresher or a junior student. The Institute has zero tolerance for any act amounting to ragging inside or outside the Institute and considers it to be a violation of human rights.

If a student feels that he/she has been a victim of ragging, they are requested to approach the office of the Dean (Student Affairs) immediately.

ENCLOSURE 7

HOSTEL NORMS

The accommodation policies at the IIT Gandhinagar hostels reflect the Institute's philosophy and value system, and are directed towards facilitating effective community living. All students are expected to cooperate with the Institute authorities and abide by these policies.

General Norms

The Institute treats its students as responsible adults and therefore expects that students will act in a conscientious and responsible manner. Students are expected to take care of the Institute assets and infrastructure, including those provided for their use. The students are expected to not waste food and adhere to waste management guidelines issued periodically.

Hostel Facilities

Several refrigerators, microwave ovens, and induction heaters have been made available in the hostels and are placed in the pantry area of each of the hostel blocks. The students are expected to use these facilities responsibly, and only at the pantry area. Cooking in the hostel rooms is strictly prohibited. Removal of any hostel equipment (microwaves/induction heaters/bean bags) from the designated areas is not allowed.

A few shops facilitating daily basic needs operate in the hostel area. Students are encouraged to seek bills for every transaction they make (except at the Amul store). The students are not allowed to carry any crockery/cutlery items from the Mess or hostel eateries into their rooms. However, students may use personal utensils to carry eatables to their rooms.

Hygiene

All students are expected to make their rooms available for cleaning at least once every week. The detailed cleaning schedule is shared in advance so that students can plan accordingly. The hostels are fogged regularly to mitigate the mosquito-related health hazards. Students are expected to assist the cleaning personnel during this exercise. Students are encouraged to maintain proper cleanliness in their hostel rooms and the surrounding hostel area.

Use of Electronic/Electric items

Use of electrical appliances other than electric air coolers, electric iron and hair dryers inside the room is prohibited. Use of additional decorative lights inside the room is permitted provided no damage is caused to any part of the room.

Ecosystem

There are several species of plants, birds and animals in the campus. Students are encouraged to protect and preserve the ecosystem and live harmoniously with these other species. Please note that there is a presence of stray dogs inside the campus. Considering that not all members of the community like to interact with them, the Institute Animal Welfare Committee has designated certain petting and feeding areas for dogs. Students must use only these designated zones if they wish to feed and pet the dogs. Feeding and petting dogs in the hostel areas and the academic complex is not allowed in the interest of the larger benefit of the entire community. Sheltering dogs inside hostel rooms is also strictly prohibited.

Use of personal motor vehicles

Possession and use of personal motor vehicles by the students is not permitted. Any student needing to park a personal vehicle for special situations or needs must apply to the Dean (Student Affairs) with full justification.

Smoking in hostel premises

Smoking in the hostel area is strictly prohibited. This includes the hostel buildings and hostel rooms. If a student faces any inconvenience due to other students indulging in smoking in hostel premises, they can report the issue to Welfare/General Secretary and/or the Warden.

Substance Abuse

Consumption, possession, sale, purchase, or distribution of alcohol and other illegal substances is prohibited not just in the hostels, but throughout the entire campus. If a student learns about or faces any inconvenience due to other students indulging in use of alcohol or illegal substances, they can report the issue to Welfare/General Secretary and/or the hostel Warden. Students who have a substance abuse problem are encouraged to seek assistance from the Counseling Services team.

Celebration of Festivals and Birthdays

Students are free to celebrate birthdays and festivals inside the hostel area without causing any inconvenience to the other community members. Students are not allowed to coerce/force anyone to celebrate any festivals, birthdays or other events.

Accommodation during vacations

All the students are required to vacate their rooms during the vacation period unless permitted otherwise by the Warden. All the belongings and luggage are to be kept in the storage room provided by the Institute. The Institute will not be liable for any loss, theft or damage to the stored belongings. If a student is found to have left for vacations with his/her room locked, the lock may be removed at the student's expense and/or the student may be charged rent for the time the room remains locked. If a student is staying in the campus for summer, he/she is required to have the permission of Warden and has to pay the prevailing hostel charges for the period of stay.

Visitors (Anyone who is not a regular IIT Gandhinagar student)

Visitors of the opposite gender are not allowed inside the hostel rooms at any time. They may however visit the hostel common rooms and other common areas. Parents are the only exception to this norm, if their ward's roommates (in case of a shared room) have no objection. There is very limited visitor accommodation in the hostels, which is provided on a "first come first serve" basis. Priority for such accommodation is given to those visiting for Institute-related activities (conferences, seminars, academic programs, interviews, etc.) and urgent medical issues. In all cases, prior permission is needed from the Warden for a visitor's overnight stay. All visitors are required to enter their credentials into the registers kept at the security desk of the corresponding hostel. If required, the security personnel may ask for a valid identity card to be produced by the visitor(s) for the verification of their credentials.

Medical emergencies

A detailed list of recommended actions for any medical emergency is provided at the notice board of each hostel and at various places in the academic complex. First aid boxes are available with the security guards of each of the hostel blocks. Students are requested to use this facility judiciously and effectively. The first aid box is to be returned to the respective security guard after use. Students are requested to inform the hostel Warden, Student Welfare Secretary or any of the members of the Health Committee regarding any chronic medical conditions that may need special attention.

Security and Safety

All residents are encouraged to carry valid identity cards issued to them by the Institute at all times. Security personnel have the right to ask for proof of identity at any time in order to verify your credentials.

Waivers and Adjustments of Hostel, Mess and Laundry fees

In addition to tuition fees, students pay hostel, mess and laundry charges as detailed in the Enclosure on fees. Students who are on authorized leave due to academic or personal reasons may request a fee waiver/exemption ahead of time. All waivers are provided on pro-rata basis. Details of the procedures for applying for waivers and timelines may be obtained from the Student Affairs office.

Complaints

Maintenance requests related to civil work can be made online at maintenance.iitgn.ac.in or manually in the complaint registers kept with the security guards of the corresponding hostels. For any other issues, particularly those related to their welfare in the hostel, students are welcome to contact the hostel Warden(s).
