

Report

2022-2023

DHWANI organized Summer Workshop for the new academic batch with the commencement of academic year of theatre on June 12,2022 .*DHWANI*won Firstprize in Monologue competition at organised by the theatre society of Atma Ram Sanatan Dharma College,DU.

On the occasion of the 75th Independence Day, our very first performance of a short stage play was conducted. The Society conducted the play titled "फलसफाआज़ादीका" on 15th August, 2022 which also marked the beginning of our competitive and non-competitive performances.

On 2nd September, 2022 we presented another stage play performance titled "गुरु" on the account of Teacher's Day. Team Dhvani introduced our college students and teachers with our Annual Street Production "Proven Guilty" based on the issue of Media Trials. We performed our street play in the college premises on 12th October, 2022

Our team also did an excursion to Banaras Hindu University (BHU) where we performed all our productions i.e. street play performed on 20th January with stage play performed on 21st January 2023 and mime was performed on 22nd January,2023.Our Mime based on the concept of "Hunger" also secured first position in the competition and monoact performed by the member secured 3rd position. Our street play " Proven Guilty " also qualified for the finals of the Street Play Competition being held in ARSD College by Rangaayan on 4th February, 2023

With the Annual event of Flower Festival of University of Delhi coming up on 2nd March, 2023 we prepared a special presentation of a Street Play based on "Swachh Bharat Abhiyan". This play was performed in the Vice-chancellor's Garden.

DHWANI, came close to its most prestigious event "Annual Theatre Gallery". This year's gallery "Un-कही" was based on pornas sexual education along with this, issues like unemployment, prostitution and healthy and unhealthy relations were also portrayed. The gallery was presented on 13th and 14th April, 2023 in front of our teachers, students and staff of collegeand received pleasing reviews from them. Both students and faculty from other Colleges of University of Delhi attended and appreciated the unique way of expression in form of Theatre Gallery.

DHWANI once again organized its own Annual Street Play Competition 'साहिर' during the college's Annual Fest 'Leiothrixx', where more than 30 teams had participated and it was held in two stages: the prelims and the finals.