Day 02	Agra – Jaipur (By Road 240 kms / 4-5 hrs)	B
---------------	--	----------

After early breakfast, check-out from the hotel and start the drive for Jaipur. On reaching Jaipur check-in to your hotel and after freshen-up proceed for the guided city tour visiting:

The splendid City Palace & Museum which opens a door into the opulent world of the Rajput princes and the treasures with which they surrounded themselves. The City Palace complex is home to several palatial buildings constructed by influential rulers that reflect the blending of Rajasthani and Mughal architectural styles. Next visit The Observatory popularly known as Jantar Mantar built by Maharaja Jai Singh II, the world's biggest stone observatory, between 1727 and 1733 AD. You'll be amazed by the "tools" he used to study the heavens – and that still provide accurate information today – during a tour. Then we make a photo-stop at the Palace of Winds popularly known as Hawa Mahal, a five storeyed wonder with a spectacular pyramidal facade and overhanging windows with latticed screens, domes and spires.

Overnight stay will be at hotel in Jaipur.

Day 03	Jaipur – Delhi (By Road 260 kms / 05 hrs)	B
---------------	--	----------

Breakfast will be at the hotel. Check-out and proceed for the visit to splendid Amber Fort, an architectural masterpiece of great historical significance. Begun in the 16th century and built of red sandstone and marble, the seemingly rough exterior gives no hint of the warm and opulent ambiance of the interior, as you'll discover this morning. Here you also get an opportunity to climb up to the fort on Decorated Elephant back.

Post visit, we start the drive back to Delhi and on reaching Delhi you shall be dropped back at your hotel.
